71 graduate in 171st Gould commencement

By JOHN NESBITT

Gould Academy presented diplomas to 71 seniors at its 171st commencement exercises on Saturday.

Playing the bagpipes, graduating senior Hillary Hough led the traditional procession of faculty and graduating seniors from Hanscom Hall to the athletic field, where family and friends of the graduates were gathered.

The Rev. Virginia S. Rickeman of the West Parish Congregational Church gave the invocation.

Deborah F. Hammond '61, president of the Gould Academy Board of Trustees, introduced the keynote speaker, Timothy P. Wilson, senior advisor to Seeds of Peace.

Wilson has more than 40 years' experience in education, public service and athletic coaching. Currently, he works with Seeds of Peace, an organization that he has been with since its founding in 1993.

Seeds of Peace is dedicated to empowering young leaders from regions of conflict with the leadership skills required to advance reconciliation and coexistence.

Sunday River will be sold to Michigan resorts operator

By MICHAEL DANIELS

The long-rumored sale of Sunday River Ski Resort is one step closer to becoming a reality.

The Utah-based American Skiing Company announced Tuesday that it had entered into an agreement to sell its two Maine resorts, Sunday River and Sugarloaf/USA, to Michigan-based Boyne USA.

Boyne will pay $77 million for the two resorts, and assume $2 million of existing debt.

In agreeing to Boyne's offer, ASC reportedly rejected a competing offer from Les Otten, who founded ASC in 1996, after building Sunday River to national prominence.

Otten resigned from the ASC Board in February, saying he planned to pursue other business interests.

According to a report in the Boston Globe, Otten had submitted what he termed "a highly competitive bid" for the two resorts, only to be rebuffed by ASC. (Otten could not be reached Wednesday for comment.)

News of the pending sale was announced to Sunday River employees in an all-hands

THS threatens

By ALISON ALOISIO

A 14-year-old Telstar High School student has been summoned for terrorizing in connection with two bomb threats at the school last month, according to Bethel Police Chief Alan Carr.

After an investigation and interviews by BPD Officer Travis Fillmore and Lt. S.R. White, the boy, from Woodstock, confessed to making the threats, Carr said.

Terrorizing is a Class C felony.

The student has been suspended from school, according to SAD44 Superintendent Dave Murphy.

"We have suspended a student in conjunction with the high school bomb threat incidents," Murphy said.

"We have worked in close cooperation with Chief Carr and the Bethel Police Department on this matter," the superintendent said, "and are appreciative of the time, effort and support they have provided for the schools."

Fillmore has been assigned as a resource officer at Telstar until the end of the school year.

A third bomb threat, which took place in the middle school, is still under investigation, Carr said.

By MICHAEL DANIELS

At a public hearing Monday, the Greenwood Planning Board listened for nearly an hour as a dozen local residents discussed the pros and cons of a proposed 12-slip marina on Round Pond in Locke Mills.

But in terms of the board's regulatory review of the proposal, none of what was said mattered — because the hearing had not been advertised, as is required by the town's Shoreland Zoning Ordinance.

In fact, few people knew of the hearing, or the marina proposal.

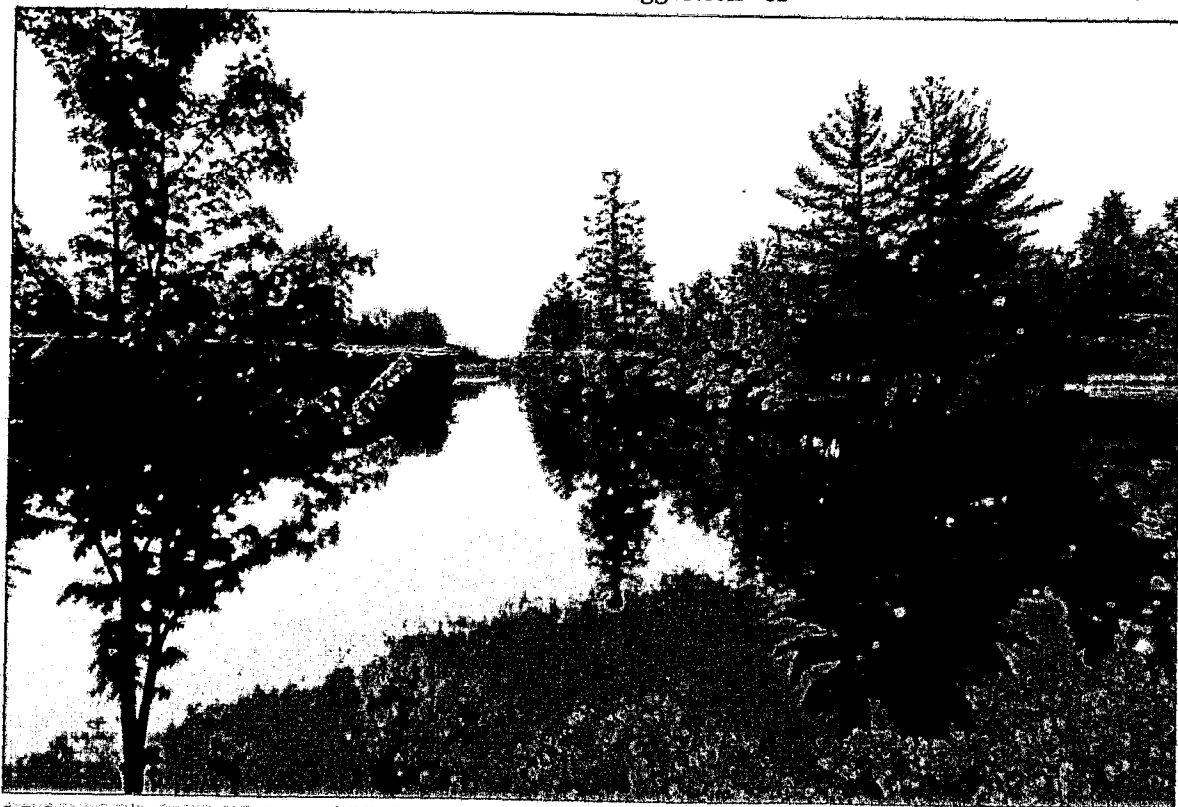

The parcel of land in question has only two abutters, the town and the St. Lawrence & Atlantic, both of whom were duly notified.

And at the suggestion of Town Manager Kim Sparks (not the Planning Board) property owners on nearby Knoll Road were also notified.

Those notifications met part of the requirement in the town's Shoreland Zoning Ordinance, but the board failed to meet another essential component: that the hearing be ad-

Group raising money to upgrade and update Davis Park equipment

By ALISON ALOISIO

An effort is underway to raise $30,000 to upgrade the playground in Bethel's Davis Park.

Selectmen recently placed $7,500 in the proposed town budget toward the project.

A group of parents decided it was time for improvements because, they said, the decade-old park equipment does not meet safety-code standards.

They said children have been getting splinters from the wood, and some of the equipment features are no longer considered safe.

The goal is to raise the funds in time to buy equipment and install it this fall.

The company from which the organizers plan to buy the equipment would provide a supervisor to oversee about two dozen volunteers who would install it.

The new equipment will be made of plastic. The plan calls for two sections. One designed for 2-to-5-year-olds, and the other for 5-to-12-year-olds.

Overall, the layout would be slightly larger than the current facility, according to organizers Joyce Pereira and Stacie Melanson.

Similar playground equipment is in use in South Paris

THANKS FOR THE KINDNESS

To the Editor:

And now it is time for us to say a big "thank you" to all our wonderful neighbors and acquaintances. It really is unbelievable the kindness that has been shown to us.

Special thanks are also given to the ones who donated wood, worked to deliver the wood, loaned trucks for hauling and for the extra help needed to get it ready.

It almost seems as though we should thank the person who stole our wood and reminding us of the many, many friends we have.

Again, thank you,

DON'T BET THE WOODPILE

To the Editor:

As is often the case, one article in the paper provides good commentary on another. Mrs. Smith's sad letter (May 31) about having her woodpile stolen is the best way I have heard of describing a casino proposal.

Pot-of-gold scenarios of public good achieved by casinos are illusions. All the evidence points to the source of revenue in any gambling scheme not being high-income tourists but rather middle- and low-income local and regional residents — those who can least afford to spend the winter without their woodpile.

Nor is it inspiring to consider that jobs promised by a casino would abet such theft.

HOWE SEEKS REELECTION

To the Editor:

During the years from 1916 to 1945 that my great-grandfather, grandfather, and father served on the Bethel Board of Selectmen, the primary issues facing that body were maintaining roads and bridges, supporting schools and dealing with the indigent. During that time, there was no town manager, and only three selectmen. For much of the town's history, one selectman came from Bethel Village, the others were elected from West and East Bethel respectively. There were no minutes kept of their often weekly meetings. The late John Harrington, long the town treasurer, told me once that the veteran first selectman, Ernest Bisbee, depended on my grandfather John Howe's remarkable memory to recall what happened in the past in regard to the Board's deliberations. It would be intriguing to read what these men and the others throughout the years discussed had minutes been kept. A real loss for local history!

By the time I was first elected to the Board of Selectmen in 1975 Bethel had long ago (1954) adopted the town-manager system and the Board had been expanded to five members. Moreover, the issues facing the board had become much more complex, ranging from the environment to town planning. In 2004, when I ran again for the Board, the job was even more daunting. Increased development pressures, quality of life concerns and governance questions were among issues that my forebears never had to face.

It has indeed been an honor and a real challenge to serve as a selectman for the past three years. For two of those years, I have also served as chair of the Board and strived to provide everyone an opportunity to be heard. On the board, I have worked to bring about consensus, so that town leaders have generally been united on many of the issues facing our community. The next three years will also be an interesting time for the town as we continue to face further development pressures, do all we can to enhance our quality of life, and make town government more effective and efficient. The spending of tax dollars needs constant monitoring and the cost of town government has to be kept as affordable as possible while planning responsibly for the future.

On June 12, I ask for your support in keeping Bethel moving forward to become an even better place to live and work.

ARIZZI SEEKS REELECTION

To the Editor:

It has been a real privilege for me to serve Bethel as a director on the SAD44 School Board this past year. I have been in education all my working life, first as a teacher and then as music supervisor for Fairfax County Public Schools in Virginia. Being a member of the School Board has given me a new and different perspective on education. I still believe our first responsibility is in providing quality education for all of our students.

During this year we have faced many challenges in providing the appropriate funding, curricula and staffing for our school system. Now we are facing the new challenge of school consolidation. In this matter, I feel I can be of great help in working toward a satisfactory result for Bethel as I've gained considerable knowledge and understanding of SAD44 during the past year. I would appreciate your vote on June 12 returning me to the school board for a three-year term.

Thank you for your support.

FUNDRAISER FOR DAVIS PARK

To the Editor:

With the arrival of spring, Davis Park is bustling with children enjoying the playground. Concerns have been raised about the condition of some of the equipment currently there.

A group of parents have gotten together to find ways to upgrade our playground, and make it safe and fun. After extensive research, we have found that, economically, replacement is the best option. (Excluding the swing set). We have in place a design for an environmentally and aesthetically friendly playground, that meets all of the safety codes within the boundaries of our current layout.

Based on these findings, we need to raise $30,000. Our goal is to purchase the equipment and schedule a community installation by the fall of 2007.

There is an account set up at Northeast Bank, under the name Davis Park Rehabilitation. Any and all contributions are tax deductible and are greatly appreciated.

Anyone interested in learning more about the Davis Park Rehabilitation is encouraged to contact Stacie Melanson at 890-2133, Heather Hale at 875-2899 or me at 890-0704.

ROTARY SEEKING GOOD STUFF TO SELL

To the Editor:

On Saturday, June 23, the Bethel Rotary Club will be sponsoring its 20th annual Yard Sale and Auction at Telstar High School. The Yard Sale will begin at 8 a.m. and continue throughout the day. The preview for the auction will start at 5:30 p.m., followed by the auction at 6:30 p.m. As always, it promises to be a lively event with hundreds of items and thousands of dollars worth of gift certificates from local merchants. Refreshments will also be available.

In the past, this auction has successfully raised funds for scholarships, senior citizen activities and other community related projects. Businesses or individuals interested in making a donation to this worthwhile event are encouraged to send their donations to me at 844 Mayville Road, Bethel, ME 04217. Individuals wishing to donate items to the auction may call to arrange for pick-up.

This year, the Rotary Club is encouraging individuals to consider donating "big ticket" items such as cars, snowmobiles, etc., with a percentage of the final price going to the club and the remainder going back to the donor. For more information on this option, feel free to contact me at 824-2041.

The Bethel Rotary Club has been fortunate to enjoy the overwhelming support of the community for many years. That support has been deeply appreciated. We hope you will join us on June 23 for another exciting event.

Budget, ordinance revisions, land/easement swap go to Bethel voters Wednesday evening

By MICHAEL DANIELS

After casting their ballots next Tuesday on two state borrowing proposals, the SAD44 budget, and the election of town officials, Bethel voters will assemble again the following evening for their annual Town Meeting.

They will tackle 43 articles Wednesday, none of which appears likely to spark heated debate.

The proposed municipal budget is up 10.2 percent, (from last year's $2,812,048 to a proposed $3,098,025) but the increase is largely offset by an increase in non-tax revenues (fees, grants, state and federal reimbursements and other miscellaneous sources of income).

Once those are factored in, the increase in the amount to be raised from taxation drops to 1 percent (from $1,600,351 for FY07 to $1,615,915).

Town selectmen and Budget Committee members are in general harmony on their recommendation regarding the proposed expenditures.

In fact, the only question on which the two boards differ concerns a $1,000 contribution toward summer decorations put up by the Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce.

The selectmen recommend the contribution; the Budget Committee does not. (Both boards recommend contributing $1,800 toward similar winter decorations.)

Ordinance revisions

Prior to taking up budget matters, voters will address nine proposed revisions to ordinances that are part of the Bethel Town Code.

The majority of the proposed revisions involve wording changes and updates in response to changing times — for example, eliminating the town's Access Management Ordinance now that the Maine Department of Transportation imposes similar regulations of its own on the same roads.

Among the more substantive revisions are:

—a reduction of approximately two-thirds in the Sewer System Development Charge (the fee paid for new hook-ups to the system);

—a proposal to give town officials criteria for (optional) regulation of victualers operating on roadsides, sidewalks and other public property;

—a provision that would give the public works director the authority to approve construction schedules for all driveways; —increasing to $50,000 (from the current $25,000) the value of a construction project that triggers the requirement for private disposal of debris;

—establishing an administrative process for conducting change-of-use determinations (such as that involved with the Funky Red Barn, which is currently the subject of a case in front of the Oxford County Superior Court).

—and a provision prohibit flashing lights on telecommunication towers (the provision, if adopted, would not be applicable to already existing lights).

Trail easement

The next-to-last article on Wednesday's warrant asks voters to give selectmen authority to enter into an agreement with John and Dale Cheney to exchange 2.8 acres of town-owned land in Mayville for an easement of approximately 2,300 by 15 feet.

The easement could be used for construction of a future extension to the current recreational trail.

The final details of such a swap would be worked out in the future by the selectmen and the Cheneys.

"The agreement can be dickered for months," Town Manager Scott Cole told the selectmen and Budget Committee Monday.

As for any actual trail construction, Cole said: "It could happen next year, it could happen in five years, it might not happen for a long time."

Town elections

On Tuesday, voters will elect two selectmen, two assessors and four school directors.

However, only one race is contested. Three incumbents — Lynn Arizzi, Elaine Cross and Carol Everett — are vying for the two open three-year terms on the SAD44 Board of Directors.

Uncontested are incumbents Pat Nasta, seeking a two-year term; and Roberta Taylor, seeking a one-year term.

Two incumbent selectmen, Don Bennett and Stan Howe, are uncontested in their reelection bids.

Also uncontested are the town's two incumbent assessors, Howe and David Luxton.

Tuesday's balloting will take place in the Crescent Park School gymnasium, from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

At 7 p.m. Wednesday, the annual Town Meeting will reconvene in the same venue.

Sunday River

staff meeting at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Chip Carey, ASC's vice president for sales and marketing, characterized the tone of the half-hour meeting at "upbeat."

"There was excitement in the room," he said. "The employees were very anxious to find out who the new owners were going to be."

Carey described Boyne USA as "a very experienced ski operator, a family owned business that really can inject some great energy here."

Following the meeting, Dana Bullen, managing director of Sunday River, said: "We're excited about the future. Sunday River and Sugarloaf/USA have always been at the forefront of lift and snowmaking technology. Boyne USA Resorts has a strong 60-year history of ski industry innovation. With this new team, things look good for Maine skiing."

Sunday River has approximately 250 full-time, year-round employees, according to spokesman Alex Kaufman.

The Citizen has been told that those employees were assured Tuesday that their jobs were secure for at least six months following the sale closing, which projected to be July 1 or earlier.

Carey said he could not confirm that commitment, since he "was in and out of" the meeting.

But, he noted: "The Boyne people have been very impressed with the team here at Sunday River. There's a lot of really good employees here."

In addition, ASC has about two dozen corporate employees here, most working in the company's IT, Retail and Purchasing departments at Bethel's Airport Industrial Park.

As for the fate of those employees, Carey said: "We are a company in transition."

People are moving to other position in the company "or moving on," Carey said.

"But they still have a lot of work to do here, at least into the near future."

Boyne USA's holdings include: Big Sky Resort in Montana, Boyne Mountain and Boyne Highlands in Michigan, Bay Harbor in Michigan, Brighton in Utah, Crystal Mountain in Washington, Cypress Mountain in British Columbia, Canada, Avalanche Bay Indoor Water Park, described as Michigan's largest water park, Gatlinburg Sky Lift in Tennessee.

Special Town Meeting tonight

GILEAD—A special Town Meeting will take place in Gilead tonight (Thursday) to consider the purchase of a pickup truck with plow and sander. Selectmen are recommending $38,000 toward the truck, which would be bought from a used vehicle dealer, administrative assistant Bev Corriveau said. At the annual Town Meeting in March, voters authorized selectmen to research the purchase of a truck. The meeting begins at 7 p.m. at the Town Hall.

Two state track champs

BETHEL—Telstar's Charles Haines won the state Class C individual title in the discus while Jen DeNormandie won the 400-meter title Saturday at the state championship track and field competition in Dover-Foxcroft. Haines and DeNormandie placed in the top seven in other events as well. For complete Telstar results, see Page 16.

Work day for Albany Town Hall

ALBANY—After a successful winter of fundraising, Albany volunteers are planning a work day June 16 to make improvements to the Town Hall. The Albany Improvement Association learned in late April that the hall, built in the mid-1800s, has been nominated by a Maine State Review Board for inclusion in the National Register of Historic Places. Documents supporting the nomination have gone on to the National Register in Washington, D.C. for final review. The AIA expects to be notified this summer if the application is approved. The hall has been used in the past as the township's polling place, but AIA members now want to make it usable for other groups, according to Lorraine Tanguay. Because Albany is not a town and cannot raise public funds, money to support improvements must be raised privately. "Fundraising [this winter] went very well," said Tanguay. Some improvements have already taken place. For example, the hall's electrical panel has been upgraded, Tanguay said. Groundwork for the installation of a handicapped access ramp is the next major project, she said. Until just recently, there has not been space to build a ramp because the hall sits on a very small land parcel. But an abutter last year donated an acre of land, and the AIA now has room both for the ramp and a parking lot, to be located along the right side of the hall. Several trees need to be cut to make way for the work, Tanguay said, and that may take place June 16. Smaller projects planned for that day include scraping and painting the outside of the building and putting the windows. The work will begin at 8 a.m.

Andover to single sort recycle

ANDOVER—On Saturday, June 16, "Andover Recycles" Kick-Off Day will take place at the Andover Transfer Station. A new recycling process called "Single Sort" is designed to allow Andover residents to toss all of their recyclable materials into one bin, according to organizers. The process eliminates extra containers at home, extra time at the transfer station, and also includes more items than traditional sort intensive recycling. Oxford County commissioner and Hannaford Rumford manager, David Duguay will participate. Hannaford Corp is donating re-usable shopping bags to help begin the process of eliminating many items from the waste stream. At the annual Town Meeting in March, a proposal to join the Northern Oxford Regional Waste Association was defeated. Some residents said they wanted ease of use, minimum cost, and local control over the transfer station. The Andover Transfer Station Committee has been meeting for the past two months and has developed a plan for maximizing waste handling and minimizing cost. There will be coffee, donuts, giveaways and demonstrations to introduce single sort recycling.

Route 26 Scenic Byway meeting

NEWRY—The Route 26 Scenic Byway Corridor Advisory Group will meet on Monday, June 11 at 7 p.m. at the Newry Town Office. The purpose of the meeting is to review the Corridor Management Plan within the context of current byway administration and funding practices. Robert LaRoche, the state Scenic Byway coordinator and supervisor of landscape architecture for the Maine Department of Transportation, will attend and will discuss the current status of scenic byway opportunities, priorities and resources. Also participating at the committee's request will be AVCOG's Dina Jackson, who will advise on how AVCOG might be able to assist in integrating byway management goals with local towns' planning, in order that the committee can best align byway enhancement activities with regional transportation priorities. Interested members of the public are encouraged to attend. Questions can be addressed to the Newry Town Office at 207-824-3123 or to committee chair Mike Broderick at (207) 824-5288 or 824-6004.

County deputies promoted

BETHEL—Sheriff Wayne J. Gallant and Chief Deputy Dane Tripp have announced the promotions of Brian T. Landis and Justin M. Brown to the rank of Corporal with the Oxford County Sheriff's Office. Corporal Brown and Corporal Landis recently successfully completed the interview and testing process for the position. "They have shown excellent leadership abilities and a commitment to the mission statement and goals set by this agency," said Gallant. "We are very confident in their abilities to assume the new role and responsibilities associated with being a corporal with the Sheriff's Office." Brown became a full time deputy with this agency in 2000 and Landis in 2003. Prior to joining the Sheriff's Office Landis was a full-time police officer in Paris. Gallant also announced the appointment of George T. Cayer as the county's newest deputy. Cayer has more than 20 years of full-time law enforcement career.

Marina

vertised at least seven days prior to its being held "in a newspaper having general circulation in Greenwood."

But since the hearing was not in fact advertised, in any manner, on June 18 the exercise will be repeated, again at 6 p.m. in the Town Office meeting room.

'Water-borne parking lot'

The marina proposal was submitted by Don Lawrence of Bryant Pond, who has a purchase-and-sales agreement (currently expired) on a 1.3-acre parcel of shoreline located between the town boat launch on Howe Hill Road and the St. Lawrence and Atlantic railroad line.

Lawrence has proposed putting in 12 16-foot long dock slips, arranged along a .92-foot stem dock that would run parallel to the shoreline.

He told the board he expected the slips to be used primarily by local people.

"Basically what it's there to facilitate is people in the area who have boats, but no longer have anywhere to put them in due to the loss of family camps and the like."

For example, he told the board, because his own boat is on a dock if his family gets more use out of it than they would if it were trailered. "I don't have to go home, hook up a trailer, trailer it over and launch the boat," he told the board.

He said he was seeking permission only for the docks, an unpaved parking area and a four-foot-wide clearing through the shoreline vegetation.

He characterized the marina as "basically a water-borne parking lot."

"No structures, no water, no sewer, nothing else," he said Monday — but he noted he could always come back to the board later if he wished to expand the operation.

Some of the residents who did turn out for the advertised meeting supported the plan, but others raised concerns about noise, traffic, safety, alcohol consumption, and the impact on wildlife and vegetation in Round Pond.

These issues are expected to be raised again at the June 18 hearing.

After the conclusion of Monday's hearing, during their own regularly scheduled meeting, the Planning Board members drafted the following "findings of fact" regarding the proposal, based in part on the input they received during the hearing (they only learned the following day that the meeting was legally invalid and would have to be repeated):

DON LAWRENCE

- 1) Boat Slips,
- 2) Location,
- 3) Greenwood Docks owned by Terrance Reynolds, Purchase and Sale Agreement pending Dock Application approval
- 4) No structures
- 5) No lighting
- 6) No eating
- 7) No trash receptacles
- 8) Site is essentially impounded
- 9) Headway speed is governed by Inland Fisheries and water ways
- 10) Increasing boat traffic, necessary to open waterway to all people
- 11) Size of boats
- 12) Revenue to local businesses
- 13) Concerns about environmental impact but none were very severe
- 14) Parking will not change.

(Note: The final "fact" is inaccurate. A new parking area is included in the permit application.)

RAISING MONEY FOR NEW GEAR

and Norway parks, they said.

The proposed improvements in Bethel would not affect the existing swingset.

Request to selectmen

At a meeting two weeks ago, the project organizers requested $30,000 from the Board of Selectmen.

The municipal budget process had already concluded, but the board agreed to place an article on the Town Meeting warrant asking voters to contribute $7,500.

Town Manager Scott Cole

said the town has received calls from parents concerned about the equipment.

At first he thought repairs would take care of the problems, but after a closer look "it's a little more complicated than that," he said.

Cole said the height of the equipment, the materials around the base, the painting and protruding items all presented problems.

He said he wished he had considered the issue more thoroughly last fall and earlier in the municipal budget process.

Other funding sources
Pereira and Melanson said they will also seek grant money for the project.

They have set up an account at Northeast Bank under the name "Davis Park Rehabilitation." For more information, see the Letter to the Editor, page 2.

Parking concerns

At the recent selectmen's meeting, Dennis Doyon expressed concern that the improvements, coupled with other plans for improvements near that end of the Bethel Parkway, might mean more vehicle traffic in the parking lot.

There is currently discussion about expanding the nearby skateboard park and walking trails.

Doyon said the various groups need to talk to each other and coordinate their work.

A time limit on parking was suggested, but no decision was made.

FAMILY FISHING FESTIVAL FINALLY CATCHES A BREAK

"A dark cloud hangs over this festival," said Maine Guide Rocky Freda Saturday morning, as the skies and forecasts all pointed to another in the seemingly endless rainy days that have plagued The Bethel Family Fishing Festival. But then the sun peaked through the clouds, and a hundred or so kids and their families turned out for the days events. Here, Austin Jodrey, 14, of Bethel lands a rainbow trout at the BIG Adventure Center pond.

The Way I See It

by Sharon Bouchard

Sharon Bouchard's column is published by special arrangement with the Advertising Department

We have certainly had enough rain to last us for a while. I know it was needed, but I was concerned that it might not stop for a long time.

In fact, when it rained on Sunday, which was June 3rd, I was very concerned that it was a sign of Saint Swithun's Curse.

Years ago someone who I thought knew just about everything told me about Saint Swithun's Curse. He said that Saint Swithun was executed on June 3rd in the rain. That is June 3rd a very long time ago, not last Sunday. Before the soon-to-be saint drew his last breath he vowed that whenever it rained on June 3rd it would then rain, at least some, every day for the month of June.

That never seemed very saintly to me but as I said, I thought my friend knew just about everything. I think I held that belief.

As an adult I certainly had my doubts about my friend and Saint Swithun, but as I never kept track of June 3rd rains I couldn't say for sure that my friend was wrong.

But, when it rained on June 3rd this year the memory of the curse came back to me. Since I will be on vacation in a couple of weeks I would really prefer that it didn't rain every day during that week.

Something I now have that I didn't have as a teenager, besides my doubts of my friend's vast knowledge, is access to the Internet. So, I decided to check out the old Saint's curse to see if I should be planning indoor activities for my vacation or if there is a chance that outside fun will be in the offering.

As it turns out my friend was quite wrong. He wasn't wrong about a rain curse, but he was wrong about who, when and why.

...there is a long-held superstition that if it rains on Saint Swithun's feast day of July 15th it will then rain for 40 days.

The good Saint is not Swithun, it is Swithun, and sometimes spelled Swithin. That name gave a bell because as I recall the name of the hospital on the old television show Saint Elsewhere was in fact Saint Swithin Hospital.

That memory is quite amazing considering that I can't remember where I put my glasses or car keys but I can remember a tidbit from a television show of over 20 years ago.

Anyway, Swithun, whose first name is unknown, lived in Wessex, England in the 800's. He had been a tutor to the King's son and he also built several churches. He was best known for his humility and his aid to the poor and needy, which I'm sure is what earned him sainthood sometime after his death.

He died on July 2nd, not June 3rd and there is no mention of an execution or a dying curse, so my friend was probably wrong on that fact too.

However, there is a long-held superstition that if it rains on Saint Swithun's feast day of July 15th it will then rain for 40 days. No one knows the whys and wherefores of the origins of this belief.

Obviously my friend didn't know considering that he had the wrong name, the wrong month and the wrong day. At least it did involve a superstition about rain.

Now that I know the facts I can plan my vacation now knowing that it is not definite that it will rain. It may rain and if it does I'm sure I'll feel cursed, but it won't have anything to do with Saint Swithun.

I will pay close attention to the weather on July 15th because during the 40-day period after that date I have another vacation planned. Well, it's all out of my control so I'll just have to deal with whatever comes my way. And the way I see it, oh wait, it's raining again. Maybe my friend really did know what he was talking about.

zhen, China, also addressed the class. She told two stories on the themes of relocation and decisions, sharing a lesson learned from the challenges she faced when she first came to the United States.

"I had to relocate myself, not only physically, but emotionally in order to be accepted; I had to drop everything that I had, to look forward and to find a new person; I had to look in a new direction with an open heart and mind," she said. "Sometimes, it takes some hard work to become responsible for your decisions. It might not always go along with what you thought it would be. There might be tears and disappointment. But that's what life is all about, that's what makes your life different from other people, and that is what makes it exciting and memorable."

Head of School Daniel Kunkle then announced the presentation of honors to

Kunkle and Hammond presented diplomas to the graduating seniors, and the Rev. Rickeman gave the benediction.

Lee and Ginny Hutchins last weekend attended the graduation of their granddaughter, Kate Lea, from Vermont College in Burlington, Vt.

Tommy Hutchins, grandson of Lee and Ginny Hutchins, graduated from Oxford Christian Academy on Friday.

Mary Eichel of Worcester Mass., has arrived for the summer at her Songo Pond home.

The exhibit of The Androscoggin at Bethel Historical Society's Robinson House opened on Saturday.

Kenneth and Gwyneth Bohr attended graduation of their grandson, Stephen Courage, from Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn., and a family reunion with lunch at Richard and Gretchen Courage's home in South Egremont, Mass. They also attended a health spa in Lenox, Mass., and as soon as they arrived, Ken tripped over Gwyneth's oxygen apparatus resulting in two fractures in his kneecap. The following Saturday, Katy Bohr received a graduate certificate in spirituality from Connecticut State University in Hartford, Conn.

Bethel Red Hat Ladies enjoyed lunch at Maurice's in South Paris and the lilac festival at MaLaughlin Garden last Thursday. Those attending were Eleanor Jodrey, Judy Barker, Dottie Bartlett, Ginny Keniston, Martha Martin, Margaret Barton, Polly Davis, and Sandra Savage.

Amy and Michael Davis attended on Saturday the Androscoggin Chorale held at The First Congregational Church in South Paris. Susan Davis White was a member of the Chorale.

Ruth Silver held a piano recital at the West Parish Congregational Church on Saturday evening. Two former students, Tracy Gibbs and Anna Sysko Schaffler performed. Other students were Anna Haberman, Nori Hashimoto, Marion Thurston, Carla Boyle-Wight, Anneliese Smith, Megan Bonney, Katlyn Keane, Marta Opie. Following the performance a reception was held with a lovely cake. Ruth was presented a scrapbook with lovely memorabilia.

Deena and Chloe Guillet of East Poultney, Vt., former Bethel residents, attended Tammy Isham's graduation at Gould Academy last Saturday and visited friends in town. Deena and her husband, Gerard, owned the former Maine Press in Bethel.

Becky Kendall and Jeri Tate returned Tuesday from a 10-day tour of Arizona, Utah and Nevada.

Nine members and guests of the Bethel Senior Citizens Club joined the Dixfield Neighbors for a bus trip to Indian Head Resort, North Lincoln, N.H., on Sunday for a Lobster Festival Day Party. Attending were Jane Hosterman, Barbara Mahler, Barbara Patterson, Shirley Lowell, Cecile and Maurice Lescault, Ruth Hazeltine, George Palmer and Rosabelle Tiff.

Oxford Hills Duplicate Bridge Club met Friday in the Fare Share Commons, Main Street, Norway. A 4 and 1/2 half table Howell movement was enjoyed. Finishing first with a 75-percent game were Mike Quinn and Luke Merry in flight A, second were Marta Clements and Nancy Farmer with Della Starbird and Eileen Potvin, third; they also were first in flight B. Finishing second in flight B were Barbara Fricke and Wally Vanderzanden.

Alas, Alack Department: The Village Inn in Auburn, a favorite of senior citizens for decades and a special place for excellent fried clam meals is closed and the entrance boarded. Ledgewood Motel in Norway, another decades old landmark has been cut into sections and was on the way out the driveway last Wednesday when we drove by. Kathy heard later that a fire in the Village Inn kitchen forced the place to close. Leave here for a few months and look what happens! Who knows when the Ledgewood Motel opened; and who owned it; and what was the big business draw for travelers to come to Norway at that time?

LIBRARY ON THE MOVE

The Gardner Roberts Library moved to its new location in Hanover Tuesday morning. Once loaded on to a trailer, it was a short and relatively quick trip from the Howard Pond Road (top) to the corner of Route 2 (middle) and on to the library's new site next to the Town Office (bottom). A dedication is planned for July 28. A fundraising effort over the past few years raised the money to fund the move.

Don Cooper who was one of the last owners graduated from Gould in 1949.

Nancy Murphy called me to report that "Mike" Murphy will be coming home to his apartment at Bethel Station Apartments (next to Western Maine Supply) after spending a few months in rehab at Market Square. Mike used to enjoy leading adult ed classes in bird carving. Now in his late 80s and returning to Bethel, he welcomes any visitors who wish to drop by.

About 30 people attended what could be called a trails mania guided discussion at the Gehring House on Friday. Three were from Mayville. The idea was to talk up trails as a community amenity that could attract more of the 55 and older crowd from the Boston area to settle in Bethel when they had grown tired of Boston.

Some examples were cited of developments in New England where trails were laid out before homes were built. Robin Zinchuk noted early on that Bethel was already built and the puzzle was deciding on trail locations around existing buildings. Snowmobile trail advocates and users made a good showing, aptly pointing out their clubs' problems and relationship with owners. Snowmobile clubs have a state backing through their organization and lobbying efforts that is not seen by the pedestrian trails groups. Pros and cons of multi-use trails were given a thorough airing — people, bikes, jeeps, ATVs, cross-country skiers, horses, all were tossed up for comments.

Sylvia Vander Sluis led the discussion and Burnham Martin, who is Bethel Area Trails Committee's National Park Service adviser, kept filling easel pad sheets with comments for distribution later. Many of the attendees are not Bethel voters yet the starting point for pilot projects seems to be Bethel. With all the different clubs and committees involved, some were calling for a "Trails Czar" to pull everything together. At the end it sounded like the Bethel Chamber wanted to become the patron of all the trail clients. The road ahead is certainly not clear. Two awesome hurdles are: dollars and incentives to participate.

A fishing field day called Bethel Family Fishing Festival was in the Kid's Catch stage at 1 p.m. on Saturday at the BIG Adventure Center. At BIG's covered-bridge pond 15 parties of kids and parents were trying their luck at snagging a trout.

Near the pond "Operation Game Thief's" large trailer-housed display of wild life — quite a collection of Maine creatures made up an eye-catching exhibit. Beyond the trailer a group of Maine Inland Fisheries and Wildlife personnel were taking a break and having a chat. On the uphill side of the pond, Bethel Fire Department had a hamburger and hot dog tent: chips, burger and soda for $4 and chips, hot dog and soda for $3. Next to the eating tent, Sunday River Alpaca farm had two young alpacas under their tent. The young animals enjoyed watching passers-by while chewing their cud.

BIG Adventure Center has a new avenue into its grounds this year. The extended Bethel Pathway circles the adventure center grounds starting under the Androscoggin River bridge. While I was at the field day, no walkers were in sight but the pathway makes for an easy pedestrian trip into the BIG.

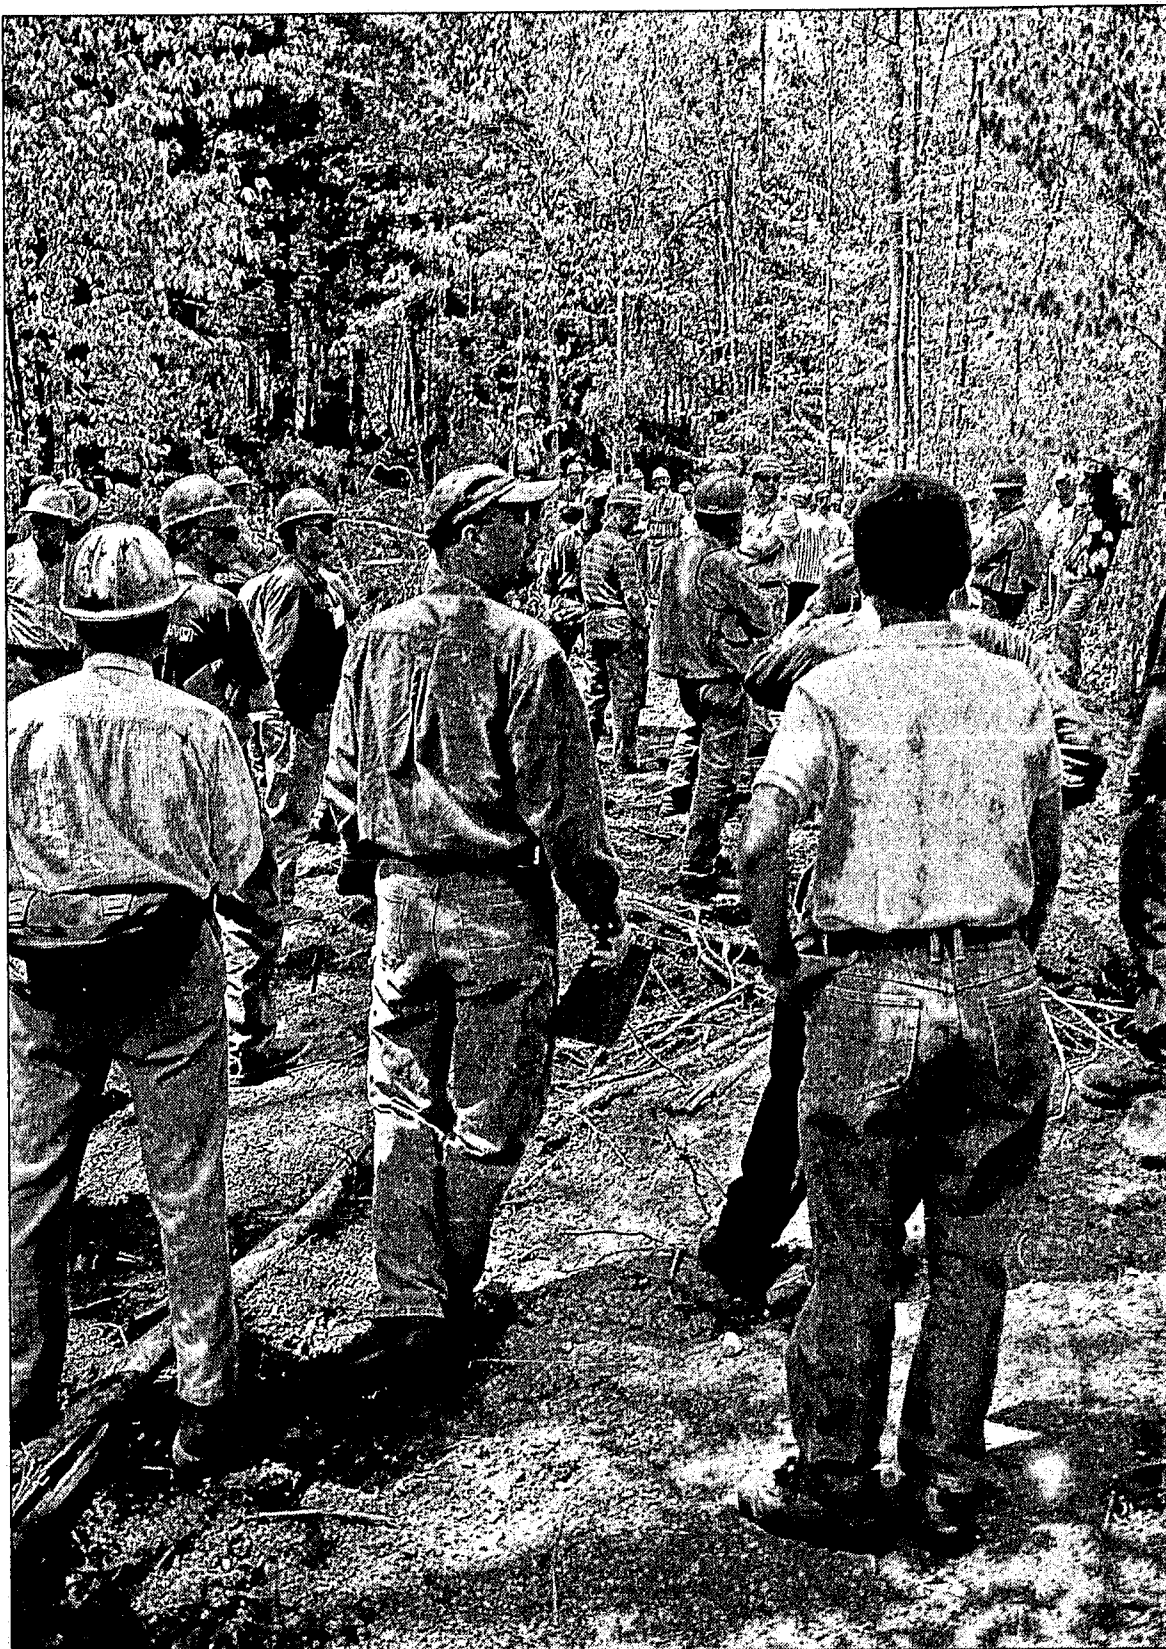

History question of the week has to do with you guessed it, Riverside Cemetery. The old part which is where the riverbank damage is to be filled in and ripped up and where the old pine grove stands was willed to the cemetery association by its private owner. The owner was considered Bethel's best-known celebrity in 1931. He died in 1935 and the cemetery association received the deed to this property in December 1935. Who was he?

Mayville's gardenmeister, Donald Chase, is getting his magnificent beds of soil ready for take off.

If there was a competition for gardens in this area, he would score first or at least very near the top. Seeing him out there gardening near Twitchell Brook reminds me of the time when I lived there and caught really tasty trout from that brook after I had finished my morning milking. My mother had them rolled in bread crumbs and pan fried for me for breakfast before leaving for school.

SOCIETY OF AMERICAN FORESTERS TOUR GREENWOOD

Approximately 100 foresters and loggers from across Maine participated in a recent tour of former Penley lands in Greenwood. The tour was part of the annual meeting of the Maine Division of the Society of American Foresters. Helping to guide the tour was David DeGruttola, district forester NH/ME for LandVest, the company that manages the land for current owner Core Value, LLC. The Greenwood parcel was chosen for its history of forest management, DeGruttola said. The land, totaling about 10,000 acres, was managed by Penley for approximately 80 years before it was sold in 2001, he said, and there are still more than 8,500 acres intact and still being managed for timber and other multiple uses. "There are still a number of large acreage ownerships in the western Maine area, typically 1,000 acres plus in size," said DeGruttola. "Changing markets, population growth, housing markets, storm damage, and insect/disease damage all have an effect on how the forest is managed. The ice storm of 1998 forced forest managers to harvest thousands of acres of trees that may have been left to grow. Small pockets of damaged trees (one to 20 acres in size) continue to be discovered during timber inventories or during the course of other fieldwork." Here, DeGruttola, standing above the group in the background, describes harvesting methods and logging road construction on one of the parcels. (Photo: A. Aloisio)

The Irving Oil Company was kind to its weekend customers and dropped gas prices by two cents to $3.05.

Photos this week at Mayville News in thebetheljournal.com. info are some scenes at the Bethel Family Fishing Festival.

I spent several days celebrating my birthday this year. I work with a great group at SAD44.

Not only did we celebrate my birthday on May 29, we celebrated the fact that it was my last day of work before my surgery. There was a beautiful bouquet of flowers from Sharon, Cheryl, Marilyn and Wendy. There were goodies and a plant from my Adult Ed buddies (Jeanie, Eileen, Vickie, Lois and Mary) and a title of Queen for a Day, complete with tiara. Since Hugh is still recovering from his back surgery, my good friends from Adult Ed have been keeping us supplied with delicious food for our evening meals. It is nice that they have come to our aid since Hugh is not supposed to bend or pick up anything heavy and I am pretty much useless with only one hand. Many, many thanks to them!

The thunderstorm on Saturday night was really something else! The hail started out about pea sized and the next wave that came through was 1/2 to 3/4 inch sized. The storm hit at the same time the warning came over the radio that a storm was headed toward Bethel from the Berlin, N.H., area.

Over the weekend, Tim and Michele arrived with a cake and presents along with William, Annie, Ajay and Sidney. The grandkids were really excited about a birthday party for Grammy.

My brother, Steve McLain, still has his robin in her nest. She watches as he goes in and out with the dogs. The dogs do not pay any attention right now, but wait until the little birds start making a racket. His son, Brad McLain, came to help with some yard work and to continue working on the garden.

Besides the regular birds at the feeder, we saw a bird this past week that we had never seen before. It was a female red-bellied woodpecker, a member of the ladder-backed woodpecker family. She came for seeds several times that day, but we have not seen her since.

Linda Smith and Wayne

Taylor were busy over Memorial Weekend with a houseful of company: Michael, Bethany and Bowdyn Mooney of Woodbridge, Va., and Brenda, Morris Defeo and children, Syd and Emilio of Fairfax, Va. On Saturday, everyone went to Storyland including Jamie and Alicia McLean and children, Morgan, Tanner and Brandon, of Gilead. Also making the trip were Amber Brooke and daughter, Maya Brook-Taylor and another granddaughter of Linda and Wayne's, Dakota Smith.

Sunday morning, Linda, Wayne and Wayne Taylor, Jr. met Brenda, Bethany and their families at the Bethel Inn for breakfast. After checking out of their townhouse, they spent the day in Gilead visiting. Bethany and family had to fly out on Sunday, but Brenda and family did not have to leave until late Sunday evening for a Monday morning flight, so they took a ride up to Wild River to see the swinging bridge and to revisit where they used to go swimming. They were amazed at how cold the water is here.

After supper in Gorham, they drove to Manchester, N.H., to be ready for an early morning flight.

There will be a Special Town Meeting on Thursday, June 7 (tonight), at the Town Hall at 7 p.m. The only article on the warrant regards the purchase of a pickup truck with plow and sander for the Highway Department.

Gilead Historical Society

Plans are moving along for the Friends and Family Day on June 23. Items for the Yard Sale can be dropped off on June 12 during the day when the Town Hall is open for voting.

So much for a short column! Not so bad with one hand, just took a little longer. Got any news? Call 836-2987 or e-mail chapmal@hotmail.com.

RESTORING THE WOOD, AND FAITH IN HUMANITY—Sometime in recent months, a thief stole three cords of wood from the property of Homer and Edith Smith of Bethel. When Dr. John Mason of Bethel heard about it, he purchased three cords from Tony Chapman of Greenwood for the Smiths, Chapman said. Dick Tyler, Steve Wight and Scott Hynek volunteered their trucks to deliver it, and formed a caravan up Route 26 Saturday morning. (See Letter to the Editor, Page 2.)

Last week's correspondence is floating out some where in "Cyberspace," and it's probably pretty wet. It has been raining for over a week. "What is so rare as a day in June" has become "what is so rare as a sunny day in June."

In spite of the dismal weather, flowers were planted and preparations for summer were underway. Boats were launched, but they sat idle in the downpour.

Moose encounters are very common. There are some stupid young ones playing tag with oncoming cars.

Love is in bloom as the hummingbirds court, and other birds fly past the window with beaks stuffed with thatch.

Visitors are scarce because gas prices are so high along with the poor weather. However, some folks braved the black flies and rain to make their way up here. Patrick Apemal, Lonnie Latourneau, LeAnne Rupy, Bill Rupy, the Yarnell boys, and Carl and Carolyn Taylor manage to make there way up north. Margaret Mitchell called from Florida where it is so dry that wildfires are breaking out everywhere.

The world is very green and the early summer flowers are lovely. The wild apple trees and crabapple trees have put on a great show. The cemetery and Town Commemorial Day.

Simonne Lavalley and the Angevines filled the flowerboxes at the Ladies Aid building. Sue Nelson, as usual, placed planters in front of the church. The lupines are tall and should bloom very soon.

Diane Williamson is on her way back to Maine after visiting friends in Pennsylvania.

Clyde and Barbara Stratton opened their Birch Point Camps over the weekend.

A party of thirteen attended a dinner at the Rooster's Roadhouse in Bethel.

Folks are bringing in birdfeeders at night. Bears and raccoons are making raids on the feeders.

Dick Angevine injured his toe last week, and he didn't get it kicking his wife!

Margie Yarnell Ruel and Jennifer Casey have been helping Joy Yarnell in the garden. In spite of using a crutch after knee surgery, Joy gets out and weeds with the rest of them. Her garden looks great.

Ginny Williamson and yours truly visited the "Fox Gloves and Daisies" in Andover, where a huge selection of perennials is available.

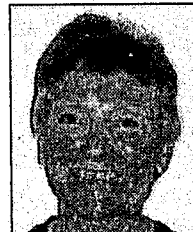

The "Bird of the Week" is a lone Canada goose with a band on its leg. The kingfishers, loons, ducks, and geese are enjoying the lake.

Heavy rains and high water have washed out some of the nests. A pair of very loud, honking geese were washed out of their nests last week and are searching for another site.

We all know what Noah went through, and a little sunshine would help.

I hereby officially declare the first week of June to be Western Maine Lady's Slipper week. This beautiful member of the orchid family, Cypripedium acaule, is at its peak right now. As usual, I have been indulging in my kooky activity of counting the blossoms, and there are more than 200 between our house and the Crocker Pond Road, a no-doubt useless piece of trivia.

Also known as the Moccasin Flower, the lady's slipper is found in acid woods, and sometimes bogs, from Canada south to the northern U.S. and in the mountains to Georgia. In this area, the color varies from typical deep pink all the way to a white morph. What-

WILD WEATHER
A thunderstorm Saturday evening brought half-inch hail to the Gilead area. Lin Chapman took this photo of her deck. Late Tuesday afternoon, another strong storm passed through, downing some trees in Gilead and knocking out power in other parts of western Maine.

The Town of Newry now has the Rapid Renewal program. This program through the Maine government allows residents to renew their vehicle registration online. If you would like to participate in this program please call the Town Office.

Hanover

Region 9 School of Applied Technology presented the annual student awards one evening last week at Mountain Valley High School in Rumford. Four area graduating seniors received scholarships from the Hanover Area Community Scholarship Fund. Leeanne Gross, Chris Barlow, Thaddeus Bennett and Michael Thurston will receive the grants at the start of their second semester. The Hanover Area Community Scholarship Fund was created with proceeds from the sale of the former Knights of Pythias Hall and its contents. The building is presently home of Just a Hobby Antiques.

The Rumford Grange 115 at Rumford Center is planning two public meals during June. The first meal will be Sunday, June 10, from noon until 1:30 p.m. and will consist of chicken brisket, with all the fixings and homemade pies. The second meal will be Saturday, June 23, from 5 until 6:30 p.m. and baked beans, casseroles, hot dogs and homemade pies will be served. The cost of both meals will be $7 for adults and $3.50 for children. Takeouts are available for both events.

For enthusiasts of the game of golf, a hole in one is a once-in-a-lifetime achievement. Gould Academy Senior Adrian Bouthot made that goal recently at the Bethel Inn Golf Course. The son of Danielle Smith-Bruce, he is rightfully proud of his accomplishment.

Dana Bresnahan died recently in California. He was the son of Thomas and Claire Foster Bresnahan, who formerly owned the "Sunflower Farm" in Hanover. He was a descendant of Reuben Foster, a very successful farmer who lived in that part of Bethel that became Hanover. Foster had been a state legislator and a Justice of the Peace. Dana Bresnahan was 81 and will be buried at Hanover Cemetery with his parents. His wife, Anna, and two children survive him.

Two Public Hearings are scheduled at the Hanover Town House at 5:30 p.m. on Tuesday, June 19. To be discussed are the proposed Town of Hanover Driveway Entrance Ordinance and an amendment to the Town of Hanover Site Plan Review Ordinance. At 6 p.m. there will be a Special Town Meeting to act upon the proposed changes including the Town of Hanover revised Floodplain Management Ordinance that was discussed at a Public Hearing on June 6, at the Town Office. It is expected that the school budget will be acted upon at the Special Town Meeting. After the Town Meeting there will be a Select Board meeting.

The State Referendum vote will be June 12. For Hanover voters the two-question referendum will begin at 10 a.m. and voting ends at 8 p.m. at the Hanover Town Office.

Greenwood City

by Wayne Hakala

I'm sure that most all have heard of my little experience on Thursday. It was a scary time when I felt that pain and the pressure on my chest. To be sure there were at least two big elephants sitting there and feeling right to home. Anita called Tri-Town and I was promptly taken care of by Jason and Norm. Troy arrived for the transport to Stephens, and he really did try to smooth out the ride from the Greenwood line down to Route 118.

Dr. Blake checked me out along with her very capable staff. Dr. Blake was also the first to check Anita back in January when Anita had the TIA. Dr. Blake told me that I really needed to go to Maine Medical for a cauterization or a nuclear stress test. So it was off to Portland by Pace Ambulance. We arrived at Maine Med to a welcome of a doctor along with an angel.

Nurse Christine and her CNAs hooked me up to a million wires and settled in for the night. Then began the fun. They started prepping me bright and early for a 8 a.m. procedure. Well the day nurse, Jen was right on the run as things were changing fast and furiously. First off, they needed to change me to a different room and after several attempts we were successful. Then they found out I was scheduled for afternoon. And here I am dying for some ever color, they are lovely to see, and a harbinger of summer to come in a few more weeks. These wildflowers are not to be picked, dug, or transplanted, so take a walk and enjoy them au naturel (and I don't mean "in the nude").

Last Wednesday evening we attended the Telstar Middle School Third Annual Fine Arts Experience. The program included performances by the chorus and traditional band; vocal and instrumental solos and duets; an art exhibit; and multi-media presentations. Of course, I have to mention that our granddaughter, Molly Siegel, and her friend, Abby Goldberg, sang a duet from the Broadway musical "Wicked," entitled "Loathing," and they did themselves proud. In fact the whole program was quite good, and many proud parents and grandparents were popping their buttons.

Again in the grandchild department, I attended a string recital on Sunday evening at the home of Portland Symphony Orchestra violist and string instructor, Laurie Kennedy, in Carthage. Our oldest granddaughter, Elisabeth Stancioff, performed a viola piece. Laurie noted that this was the seventh year she had held this recital at her home, and she had seen a great many of her pupils grow and refine their talents before they went on to other pursuits.

Jane Hosterman and Barbara Mahler went on a bus trip with Bethel and Mexico Senior Citizens on Sunday. Their destination was Indian Head Resort in New Hampshire. After a delicious lobster feed, the audience was treated to entertainment by a versatile country-western singer who was able to impersonate many familiar singing cowboy personalities, most enjoyable for all.

Jane reports that on Sunday, Phil Rolfe, Lonnie Davis, and a third "good samaritan" loaded up all the logs in her doorway onto a trailer and deposited same either behind the barn or in her garage near the log-splitter. Sort of defines the word "neighbor." She extends her heartfelt thanks to the trio.

After the Bethel Library plant sale on Saturday morning, we spent most of the rest of the day helping daughter Martha and her family move into their new home on Shamrock Road — as the crow flies, one and a half miles due east of the Hoehstead. Even filled with boxes, the house looks lovely and will be a wonderful family home for years to come. (And now all of Martha's houseplants can move from here to there!)

Edie Smith's letter was not easy reading. I remember the days growing up in Rumford, where people only locked their doors when going on vacation. Cars were never, or seldom locked on the streets. Now, the theft of several cords of wood, valued in many dollars, has been taken from a hard-working elderly man. Perhaps the thieves (can't imagine one person doing it without being detected) when caught might spend a few months behind bars this winter — keeping warm where they had not intended to be.

Cyndy Kane Olson and son, Chris, drove out on Wednesday to release the pollywogs that had been growing and observed by the children at Mahosuc Montessori School in Bethel. When they were released into the same vernal pond where they originated from as eggs they had little feet developing.

That same morning I noticed a rather large garter snake out in front of a small patio. It looks about two feet in length. This, after Mark asked if it was two-feet long and I said I didn't think so, but seeing it stretched out and moving to a nearer spot, decided it had to be that large. I usually see one or two a year, but a bit smaller. Years ago I had the fear that someday I would step on one; and sure enough, that fear became a reality.

The grass is growing and I hear the lawnmowers humming away as people make their yards look trim for the summer.

On my way home from Bethel on Saturday, I stopped in to get the turkey count from BRTF. Greg and Robin Fraser stopped by to fill their motorcycles, as they were planning to take a ride. I hadn't seen either for quite some time, so we did a little catching up.

I am looking forward to my friend Carol Small from Orrington and Tampa, Fla., diving over on June 4 for a few days. Lots to catch up on, as she and her husband, Tim, spent the winter in Tampa. We plan on a trip to Gorham and Berlin if the rain lets up.

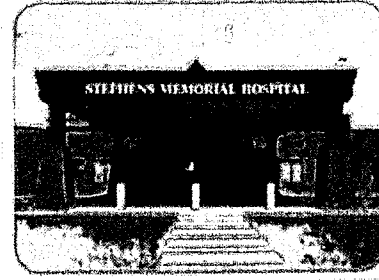

I read under Virginia Keniston's column that Kay Eames of Cape Elizabeth and the Branch Road had been in a rehabilitation center in Portland for the month of May. She just returned home recently. On Sunday, I called Kay and had a very pleasant talk with her. She will know in a couple of weeks if anything more needs to be done. She did have some plates put into her hips and has to watch how she moves her legs at this time. I wish her well and look forward to seeing her here this summer.

Kevin Wight, son of Brad and Brenda Wight, was listed on the Region 9 School of Applied Technology National Technical Honor Society.

On May 27, Ed and Retta Powers held their annual Memorial celebration. Plus this year, they celebrated Mike Wight's 50th birthday and Payton Berry's 2nd birthday (both born on May 27).

FROM IRELAND TO AMERICA—Richard and Mona Grover of Mason recently returned from a trip to Ireland. Among their photos was this one of a statue at the Cobh Heritage Center that depicts Annie Moore and her brothers, the first Irish immigrants processed at Ellis Island in New York. Read about the Grover's trip in Richard's Mason column on this page.

breakfast. Had just squared away with the thought and here comes two young women to whisk me away to the procedure.

The doctor and staff for the procedure really did keep me entertained, or was it that I was entertaining them at times? But anyway we were doing good until Dr. Sweeney told me I was going to feel really hot for a few moments. I could feel the heat just rolling out of me from each pore and opening. In addition, the next second it was a bad case of nauseous heaves. Just knew I was going to make the room and all involved look and smell terrible. But a little shot of something made that feeling go away. Doctor said he was going to remember me for a long time as this had not happened for along time.

By the time I got back to my room, Anita was there waiting and talking to the family of my roommate. My roommate of a short period was going home. Dear Jen and everyone made me as comfortable as possible and even ordered me up some lunch. Anita helped me and really it was very good. Jen was able to place me in several positions to help the pain in my back from getting too uncomfortable. Moreover, the procedure knows what lying flat for four hours is like. When the timer went off for four hours limit I was truly ready to sit up on the edge of my bed. Had quite a time getting there but did it. Just in time for supper.

Dr. Sweeney came in shortly after and had good news in that there were no blockages. So have to get with my doctor at the VA Clinic in Rumford to check out further. After he checked me further, I was able to get up and do some walking.

I walked very slowly to the nurses' station just in time for the shift change. Jen was briefing Christine at the time. Well Christine gave me a big hug when she heard the good news. You know that the hug was the best medicine of all. Hugs are good for what ails anyone. The next morning at shift change I had Alleen for my nurse. Christine and Alleen checked me out together and I received another big hug from Christine. Makes it worthwhile to get sick. Thank you my dear angel.

Alleen's grandmother lived in Bryant Pond and we had quite a time talking. Alleen wheeled me out to the car when I was discharged and gave me hug for good luck. Anita says I can't go anywhere without getting hugs from all the young ladies. Life is good! Thank you to all that made my short stay so nice.

The episode on Thursday really messed up the schedule for the whole weekend. We were supposed to set up for the Old Home Days and I missed it all. But some very good brothers helped out even more. Of course it has to rain sometime during the Old Home Days and Saturday was no exception.

The Whitman Memorial Library invites the public to a presentation by John Davis on June 14 at 10 a.m. John will be exhibiting and discussing Japanese "Sakura Dolls." Saku-ra dolls are "Cherry Blossom Dolls" and handcrafted by John's late wife, Yoshiko. This event is the last until the new fall schedule. This program is open to the public and free of charge. Light refreshments will be served. In addition, the Whitman Memorial Library of Bryant Pond welcomes all their neighbors to visit and make use of the library.

Going to close for now. The recliner is calling out my name and the Sox will be playing again. Life is good on the sunny side.

Ireland Trip, Day 2
We were back at 9 a.m. the morning after the noisy party in the Killarney Towers Pub. Driver Matt was in good humor and regaled us with short stories, anecdotes and a sampling of Irish words during the hour or so drive to the town of Cork. There we were to visit the Blarney Castle and the Blarney Woolen Mills outlet store for sweaters and such.

First, Matt told us about an Irish politician named Jackie Healey Rae, who, after winning an election a few years ago was interviewed by a rather smart-alec reporter. During the interview, Jackie Rae scratched his head several times without removing his hat. The reporter asked him, "Why didn't you take off your hat to scratch your head?" Rae responded, "Young man. Do you take off your pants to scratch your butt?"

As we arrived in Cork, the weather turned cloudy, and a light mist began falling. Matt drove us to a parking lot adjacent to the Blarney Woolen Mills store and gave us two hours to visit the Blarney Castle, kiss the Blarney Stone, and do our shopping in the store. He warned us that the trip up the castle stairway to the Blarney Stone involved more than 100 steps!

The walk to the castle took about ten minutes along a picturesque pathway lined with green grass on one side, a meandering stream, flowering trees on the other. Upon emerging from a grove of trees, we were struck by the sudden appearance of the ancient stone castle stretching skyward immediately in front of us. The walls were nearly covered by moss and other miniature green vegetation. We passed on the left side of the castle, where a very dark dungeon entry stairway descended into the darkness under the stone edifice on the right. Around the corner, the castle entry led us into a central hall, open to the sky, high above. Crossing the right end of the hall, we passed through a doorway into a narrow spiral stone staircase leading upward in a round turret; the stairway was so narrow that climbing was single file, and there was no room for anyone descending to pass you on the stairs. Later, we learned that castle stairways were designed this way purposely in order to make it easy for a swordsman to defend against enemy swordsmen trying to attack up the stairs.

Several openings along the walls of the turret provided views into the central hall and also to the outside of the castle. Finally, after many steps, we reached the top level, where we entered onto a catwalk along the inner wall of the central hall, which extended along all four walls of the rectangular hall. From here, the entire hall was exposed below you, and you could also look out through the "jack-o-lantern teeth" of the top of the wall and admire the storybook green world outside.

As the mist fell harder, we saw a group of people ahead of us huddled around the famed Blarney Stone at the far end of the hall. A surprise to me was the fact that the Blarney Stone appeared as "just another rock" in a stonewall of many similar rocks.

Here, an attendant, wearing a kneecoat and standing on his knees on a padded stone opening assisted each tourist to sit down facing away from the stone, lean over backward to grasp two iron pipes, one on either side, and bend downward upside down to kiss the rock! Meanwhile, a photographer snapped two photos, one of you kissing the rock, and one as you straightened back up, so he could see your face. The "photog" was connected electronically to a little tourist trap booth on ground level where you could purchase 8 x 10-inch photos of yourself kissing the Blarney Stone as you passed out of the castle.

Once you had kissed the rock, you entered another turret and spiral stairway opposite the one you came up, and descended to ground level and the photo booth.

On leaving the castle, we walked back to the Blarney Woolen Mills store to browse the stacks of authentic Irish woolen sweaters until lunchtime. Then the bus took us to the village of Cobh, where resides the "Cobh Heritage Trust," a museum complex housing memorials and mementos of those Irish who migrated to the U.S. during the potato famine of the 1800s. A statue of Annie Moore and her two young brothers stands on the dock commemorating the Irish migration because she was supposedly the first person processed through the immigration center on Ellis Island, N.Y. The museum also holds interesting artifacts, photos, mementos and a memorial to the ship and passengers of the Titanic, which was built in a shipyard at Belfast, Northern Ireland. Also contained here is a history of the passenger ship Lusitania, which was sunk off Cork Harbor by the Germans during WWI, bringing the U.S. into that war because of the Americans lost aboard.

Matt then drove us back to Killarney, leaving us time to stroll the streets and window shop for a while before dinner.

Driver Matt then added (at additional cost) a special Jarvey tour to Killarney National Park for the next morning. "Jarveys" are small two-wheel horse-drawn tourist carts. Several Jarveys trotted through traffic to the taxi bus stand in front of our hotel, where we boarded — up to eight tourists per cart. We "clip-clopped" off down the streets and onto a lane leading to the park, a trip of about 30 minutes. Our horse, Molly, kept up a lively pace as driver Kevin regaled us with a continuous string of anecdotes and stories. Kevin pointed to the woods we were passing through: "On the left we have Monk's wood; on the right, there's the nuns wouldn't! Through the trees on the right you can see Locke Lane, the lake of knowledge.... The lake has 26 islands; the smallest is, called Honeymoon Island because there is only standing room for two people there.... At the Ross Castle ahead, they serve honeymoon salad; that's without dressing."

Kevin dropped us off at a parking lot near Ross Castle and adjacent to a dock at the lake shore. Here we boarded a fully glass-enclosed launch for an hour-long boat tour of the lake, where the driver pointed out scenic or historic landmarks in every direction. A heavy mist and light fog lowed us around the lake, making the enclosed feature of the launch welcome. (To be continued.)

This week there are two birthdays and they are both turning the ten. Elliot had the first birthday last Sunday. Owen has the second birthday this Friday. Happy Birthday!

Two weekends ago we found a liter of baby mice. They had their nest in our garden shed in a fertilizer bag. They looked like fat inchworms. After disturbing them, Madeline placed them in a new nest. The mother came back and retrieved them all.

West Paris

We are now receiving much needed rain. The sunshine for a week was nice and gave all growing plants a good boost but into each week some rain must fall to give us food and green surroundings. Old Home Days started Friday with a children's parade, which was held between rain showers. A public supper was held by the Historical Society to a full house.

On Saturday there was a large parade from Briggs Street and Trap Corner to the Village. Fire and emergency vehicles from surrounding towns joined the West Paris units. Kingsbury Street was closed off and lined with booths selling crafts and food. A horse-drawn wagon provided rides around the streets.

Milton Inman showed slides of West Paris and many of its citizens from former days.

On Sunday many beautiful restored cars were exhibited. Derby races were held. All worked hard to make it a success and all had a good time.

On Sunday, June 10, Debbie Irons will lead the 9 a.m. service at the West Paris Universalist Church.

Pat Sherman of Norway won the quilt the craft group had made.

A special service was held at the Universalist Church to welcome five new members, Greg and Donna Trundy, Donna Marshall, Irene Redman and Nancy Willard. Welcome!

On Thursday, June 14, at the Whitman Memorial Library at Bryant Pond, John Davis of South Paris will exhibit and discuss a number of Japanese Sakura Cherry Blossom Dolls made by his late wife, Yoshiko. She was an instructor for the Kamakura School of Japanese doll making where she taught the art to wives of American servicemen at military housing locations in the Yokohama area. The dolls feature exquisite detail and are attired in colorful silk kimonos and each has a unique story with the cultural history of Japan. It is open to the public with no charge. Light refreshments will be served.

The West Paris Alumni Banquet was held at the gym in West Paris with a good attendance.

I attended the Buckfield Alumni Banquet, for I graduated there in 1947, thus this was our 60th year to celebrate. My class of 13 has lost six of its members. I had contacted the remaining seven in March and again last week to encourage them to attend. Two are in wheelchairs and one is in a nursing home and did not feel able to come. Three of us were there and enjoyed the evening together.

Muffin seems to be getting larger. She does have all the dry food she wants but only has a little wet food twice a day. She is enjoying her life here with me and I enjoy her companionship. I now have someone to talk with!

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Jackson and daughters of Old Town, Marilyn Mollicone of Augusta, Alice Grant of Cape Elizabeth, and Carolyn Grant of Winterport visited Nina Mollicone over the Memorial Day weekend.

Alder River Grange will meet on June 8 at the hall with a 6:30 p.m. potluck supper and the meeting at 7:30 p.m.

The first supper of the season will be on June 16. This is a turkey supper.

The supper schedule is: July 28, meat loaf; Aug. 18, baked beans (we had planned bean hole beans, but the Fire Department stated what we had to do to be sure of no burning fires and we gave it up); Sept. 29, pork loin; Oct. 20, harvest; and Nov. 10, turkey (free to all veterans).

Scott and Wendy Annis' niece and nephew, Courtney and Jessica LaValley from Alaska, are visiting for two weeks.

If you have any news, give me a ring at 824-3350.

The gardens are going in now. We need a little sun now to get them growing.

God Bless the Troops.

The program at Whitman Memorial Library for June will be John Davis with his beautiful Sakura Cherry Blossom Dolls. These dolls were handcrafted by his late wife, Yoshiko. John will exhibit and discuss several of these dolls. Each doll has a unique story of the culture and history of Japan. Yoshiko taught others how to make these dolls. (They are beautiful, as I have seen them.) The date is Thursday, June 14 at 10 a.m. Everyone is welcome and there is no charge. Light refreshments will be served.

Memorial Day was very nice weather wise and the turnout at the program and parade was good sized. The essays from the 4th Grade were very good this year. Nick Johnson was the one to read his essay at the Memorial program; he received $5 and each one will receive a coin dollar. Steve Seames gave an interesting talk with facts about Civil War Veterans from this area as well as other Veterans from later wars. Thanks to all who took part in any way.

The Woodstock-Greenwood Senior Citizens will go to Rosco's Rocking Railroad Restaurant for dinner today (Thursday, June 7).

Services at the Baptist Church are Sunday School at 9:15 a.m., morning worship at 10:30 a.m., youth group at 4 p.m., choir practice at 5 p.m. and evening service at 6 p.m.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 is prayer meeting. All who attended the church fun day last Saturday had a fun time.

The Woodstock High School Alumni Banquet will be held June 9 at 5 p.m. at Telstar High School cafeteria. Special guests will be members of the classes of 1937, 1947 and 1957 and Telstar seniors from Woodstock and Greenwood. All alumni welcome. Price: $8.50 for all but special guests.

Larry Billings attended the Baptist Church recently and especially enjoyed the singing.

The New England cultural Center has exhibits on the region's heritage. Visit soon.

The Historical Society Museum tries to offer attractively organized and displayed exhibits anyone can relate to. Visit and see for yourself. The museum is not antiseptic and remote but warm and welcoming. One feels comfortable visiting there and quite at home. The members are anxious to help you and share their knowledge. They are genuinely friendly. The town and area definitely benefit from what the society offers. They present the very best they can to the public. Remember the museum is open 1 to 4 p.m. every Saturday during the summer. Meetings are the second Saturday of the month at 7 p.m.

Albany

by Sheila Dyke

Greetings and hello from Albany Township. Spring is here, but, so is the rain. Well, wet weather until just these past couple of days where an actual rain fell. I know David has been feeling rather forlorn about the weather as he's been wanting to go swimming.

This past week was busy and this week will be even busier for us as Dyana gets ready to graduate this Friday. Between final exams, all of the stuff going on at the school for the seniors and getting ready for college, it's been difficult to find time in the day to just relax and enjoy. And, then of course, there is the search for a summer job! It's so hard to believe that our little girl is graduating from high school and preparing for college. Kind of gives you a sick, tight-knot feeling in the pit of your stomach.

Congratulations to the other Albany Township seniors: Aaron Barton and Alan Buck. May you enjoy all of life's gifts to their fullest!

Best wishes for a happy and safe week. God Bless and Keep.

Where do you stand on wind power? Is it an important clean, alternative power source? Some feel it is an unwarranted intrusion in our pristine wilderness.

What is Plum Creek's newest proposal to develop areas on Moosehead Lake and the North Woods? Is economic development synonymous with urbanizing our last wilderness? Many people in southern New England would prefer a national park in northern Maine.

Hear the latest facts on these controversial topics on Friday, June 8, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Moses Mason House, Broad Street, Bethel. This third in the series of "Down Home Maine" presentations will feature Catherine Carroll, director of Maine's Land Use Regulation Commission, and Steve Wight, longest serving LURC commissioner.

Carroll will present a brief overview of the agency and some of the projects pending such as Plum Creek and Wind Power. She and Wight will spend the remainder of the program discussing ideas and responding to audience questions.

Western Mountains Senior College developed the Down Home Maine series to bring unique personalities and programs to the community. The spring series is cosponsored by the Bethel Historical Society, which will be the topic of the final spring session on Friday, June 22, when Stanley Howe, museum curator, will highlight future plans for the society.

The public is invited to all presentations and admission is free. However, donations will be appreciated. For more information, call 824-0508 or 665-2181.

Peer Learning/Shared Inquiry Workshop

Five members of WMSC attended a Peer Learning Workshop at the University of Maine at Augusta last week to learn how to create and facilitate successful peer learning study groups. WMSC members Peter Gartner, Jim and Rose Mary McLean, Jackie Cressy and Rosabelle Tiff joined some 25 other members from senior colleges across the state at this workshop hosted by the Maine Senior College Network. As part of this network, WMSC along with the fifteen other senior colleges across Maine have many opportunities to become better informed and challenged for the benefit of their individual members.

Feng Shui of Flowers

Celia Vestica, Feng Shui designer, gave an enlightening workshop on Saturday for WMSC members and guests. She explained "how to create a sacred space in your garden or landscape." Celia also gave us a wealth of resources along with a recommended book list to help us follow-up in this new venture.

WOMEN'S ISSUES SPEAKER SERIES

Current Women's Health Concerns and Chinese Medicine

With Abi Morrison
Red Bird Acupuncture, Bethel and Rockland

The Blue Moon Midwives invite you to join us for an informative lecture by licensed acupuncturist Abi Morrison on how Chinese medicine treats women's health concerns. Over thousands of years, Chinese physicians have developed a theoretical basis for maintaining health and treating disease, including many gynecological problems. Using a combination of diet, herbs, acupuncture, and therapeutic movement, many common problems can be addressed without the use of medications. Chinese Medicine excels at supporting the body's natural healing abilities. From menstrual pain and abnormalities, to fertility, and menopausal issues, Chinese medicine focuses on the individual presentation of any concern. The underlying factors for any given problem will differ for each person. In addition to talking about these factors, Abi will give some basic dietary information and show some simple therapeutic movement that addresses some of the causes. Abi will use your specific concerns to base her talk on.

Abi Morrison practices Chinese Medicine in Bethel and Rockland under the guise of Red Bird Acupuncture. She studied at the College of Integrated Chinese Medicine in the U.K. and Tri-State College of Acupuncture in N.Y.C.

Andover Alumni Association

Maxine (Dresser) Thurston, Class of 1949 from Andover High School, had some good advice for members of the Class of 2007 when she spoke at the annual alumni banquet on Saturday, May 26.

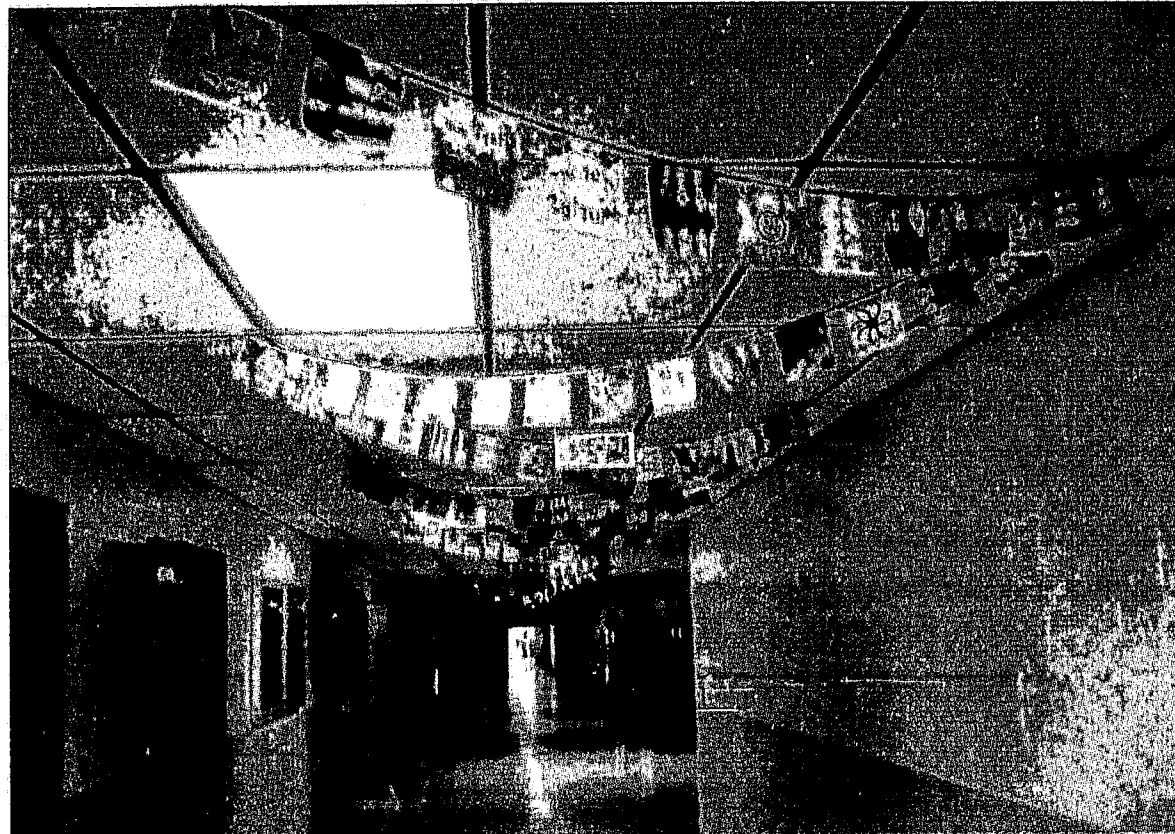

"Remember where you came from," she told the four senior girls present, reminding them to look to the future with enthusiasm, knowing they had grown up in a caring community which wasn't about to forget them as they left their hometown behind.

Thurston, a University of Maine graduate and longtime Vermont resident, added, "This town will always be in back of you, supporting what you do."

Adding humor to her talk, Thurston passed out favors to Mountain Valley High School seniors Lauren Gammon and Abby Mills and Telstar seniors Jennifer Learned and Kayla Morin. Members of the Class of 2007 who did not attend the banquet are: Joseline Belanger, Nicholas Hammond and Jessica Putnam at Telstar and Owen Barter at Gould Academy.

Glen and Kathy Conrad serve as co-presidents of the Andover Alumni Association, sponsors of the event, which was attended by nearly 120 alumni, senior parents and friends. However, credit was shared by Conrad's mother, Nonie Stecher of Bethel who found a caterer for the turkey dinner, acted as liaison with the schools, collected raffles and decorated. Others seated at the head table were: The Rev. Jane Rich, The Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Wagstaff, Maxine and Harmon Thurston and Blake Conrad, who spoke about life one year after graduating from Telstar.

Among numerous awards presented, Abby Mills was historically unique in receiving both the Anna Thurston Memorial Scholarship ($1,000) and the John B. and MAKE A SQUARE, MAKE A WISH COME TRUE—Students, staff, and volunteers at Telstar Middle/High School have been working all year to raise $5,000 for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Maine. This amount is the average cost of granting one wish through this organization, and an individual or group that is able to raise $5,000 becomes known as a "Wishmaker." Telstar became a Wishmaker on May 25. Early in the school year, students in the Fine Arts Department decided that they wanted to help the foundation with their second annual "ArtReach" event. This event, which includes a student art sale, musical performances, and a live auction of works donated by local arts professionals, was designed to give students an opportunity to use their talents to make a difference. Telstar's parent volunteer committee also helped out with a calendar raffle, and in April, the TMS student leadership committee organized a talent show and raffle with several items donated by Bethel area businesses. Telstar High School held a Fine Arts show in a format similar to the ArtReach. In addition, TMS art students began the "Make-A-Square, Make-A-Wish" community art project. Students tie-dyed several pieces of fabric which were then cut into 900 small squares. Each square could be "sponsored" for a $2 donation. Donors personalized their squares with a permanent marker, and then each one was pinned onto a long rope that stretched across the ceiling of the school's hallway. As more and more money was raised, the brightly colored squares filled the hallway with images and messages of hope and support. On May 25, Telstar reached the $5,000 goal, and all of the 900 squares were complete. For the conclusion of the project, students will work with local volunteers to sew the squares together into a large quilt that will be given to the child whose wish was granted by this year of fundraising. The completed quilt will be presented to a Make-A-Wish representative during an assembly on the last day of school, June 14. The assembly, which will be held in the Telstar auditorium at 10:30 a.m., is open to all students and community members. It will be a celebration of the entire Wishmaking experience, with the unveiling of this community quilt as the grand finale.

Eunice Fox Memorial Scholarship ($1,000). Although not in attendance, announcement was made that Nicholas Hammond will receive the Sweet Family Memorial Scholarship ($1,000), as well as the Michael Marston Memorial Book Award for "outstanding Region 9 student".

All graduating seniors from Andover who are seeking further education will receive scholarship aid in varying amounts through the Andover Education Fund.

One of the Top 10 at Telstar, Jennifer Learned received the Andover Service Circle Community Service Award, as well as the Andover Alumni Association math and science awards for the highest ranks for a senior. She also received the East Andover Community Club Award for "leadership, school activities, cooperation, character and scholarship" and the Lila Farrington Memorial Scholarship Award for Andover seniors in the Top 10 among graduates. Although absent, it was announced that Joseline Belanger was also named recipient of an East Andover Community Club Award.

MSAD #44 2007-2008 SCHOOL BUDGET

To the Voters of M.S.A.D. #44
May, 2007

On behalf of the M.S.A.D. #44 Board of Directors, I am pleased to present you with a summary of the proposed 2007-2008 school budget. Also included is a summary of the ballot questions and the explanations that you will see on the ballot when you vote on June 12.

The public hearing on the proposed budgets will be held on Tuesday, May 29, 2007 at 7:00 PM in the Telstar Library. The referendum vote will be held on June 12, 2007. The hours and locations of the various polling places throughout the district are included.

Please take some time to review the information contained. On page 3, you will see a comparison between the 2006-2007 budget and the recommended budget for 2007-2008. The column labeled "Ballot Question Reference" will help connect specific budget figures to the actual ballot questions referred to on page 4. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me at 824-2185. The School Board joins me in asking for your support of these articles on June 12, 2007.

Respectfully submitted,

David W. Murphy, Ed.D.
Superintendent of Schools

QUESTIONS 1 THROUGH 3 RAISE FUNDS TO EXPEND FOR THE SCHOOL BUDGET

Question 1: State/Local EPS Funding Allocation. Shall Maine School Administrative District No. 44 appropriate $7,270,977 for the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12 as described in the Essential Programs and Services Funding Act and shall Maine School Administrative District No. 44 raise $4,598,464 and assess the amounts set forth below as each municipality's contribution to the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12 as described in the Essential Programs and Services Funding Act in accordance with the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 15688?

Total appropriated (by municipality):

Town of Andover: $1,167,719
Town of Bethel: $3,394,092
Town of Greenwood: $1,084,830
Town of Newry: $280,660
Town of Woodstock: $1,343,676

Total raised (and district assessments by municipality):

Town of Andover: $366,957
Town of Bethel: $1,637,513
Town of Greenwood: $534,342
Town of Newry: $1,414,028
Town of Woodstock: $645,624

School District Total

Appropriated: $7,270,977

School District Total

Raised: $4,598,464

The Board of School Directors Recommends a "YES" vote.

Explanation: The District's contribution to the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12, as described in the Essential Programs and Services Funding Act is the amount of money determined by state law to be the minimum amount the District must raise and assess in order to receive the full amount of state dollars.

Question 2: Non-State Funded Debt Service. Shall Maine School Administrative District No. 44 raise and appropriate $227,627 for the annual payments on debt service previously approved by the voters of this District for non-state funded school construction projects, the non-state funded portions of school construction projects, and minor capital projects in addition to the funds appropriated as the local share of the District's contribution to the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12?

The Board of School Directors Recommends a "YES" vote.

Explanation: Non-state-funded debt service is the amount of money needed for the annual payments on the District's long-term debt for major capital school construction projects and minor capital renovation projects that are not approved for state subsidy. The bonding of this long-term debt was previously approved by the voters of the District.

Question 3: Additional Local Funds. Shall Maine School Administrative District No. 44 raise and appropriate $936,176 in additional local funds, which exceeds the State's Essential Programs and Services allocation model by $662,255 as required to fund the budget recommended by the Board of School Directors?

The Board of School Directors recommends $936,176 for additional local funds and gives the following reasons for exceeding the State's Essential Programs and Services funding model by $662,255: These funds are needed to provide smaller class sizes than are recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, to provide greater academic support in the form of educational technicians in District classrooms than is recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, to pay for co-curricular costs not recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model, and to pay for transportation costs not recognized by the Essential Programs and Services funding model.

Explanation: The additional local funds are those locally raised funds over and above the District's local contribution to the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12 as described in the Essential Programs and Services Funding Act and local amounts raised for the annual payment on non-state-funded debt service that will help achieve the District's budget for educational programs.

QUESTION 4 AUTHORIZES THE BOARD TO EXPEND THE TOTAL SCHOOL BUDGET FROM THE ABOVE SOURCES AND OTHER AVAILABLE FUNDS

Question 4: Total School Budget Summary. Shall Maine School Administrative District No. 44 authorize the Board of School Directors to expend $9,998,961 for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2007 and ending June 30, 2008 from the District's contribution to the total cost of funding public education from kindergarten to grade 12 as described in the Essential Programs and Services Funding Act, non-state-funded school construction projects, additional local funds for school purposes under the Maine Revised Statutes, Title 20-A, section 15690, unexpended balances, tuition receipts, state subsidy and other receipts for the support of schools?

The Board of School Directors recommends a "YES" vote.

QUESTION 5 RAISES FUNDS TO EXPEND FOR THE ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAM

Question 5: Shall the District appropriate $207,509 for Adult Education and authorize the expenditure of additional funds raised through grants or self-funded programs for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2007, and ending June 30, 2008, and shall the District raise $102,009 as the local share?

The Board of School Directors recommends a "YES" vote.

QUESTION 6 AUTHORIZES THE BOARD TO EXPEND ADDITIONAL STATE AND FEDERAL FUNDS

Question 6: In addition to the amounts in Questions 1 through 5, shall the District authorize the Board of Directors to expend such additional State, Federal and Other Funds received during the 2007-08 fiscal year for school and/or adult education purposes provided that such grants, programs or other services do not require the expenditure of other funds not previously appropriated?

The Board of Directors recommends a "YES" vote.

QUESTION 7 AUTHORIZES THE BOARD TO ESTABLISH A CAPITAL RESERVE FUND

The Allyson Hodsdon Memorial Award for "excellence in junior literature" went to Elther Pew, a member of the Class of 2008 at Telstar. She also received an Andover Alumni Association Award for highest rank in math. Others receiving a math award were freshman Amy Jane Mahar and sophomore Whitney Mills.

As Kathy Conrad read their names, students from kindergarten through high school senior assembled at the front of the room to receive their Walter Fox Book Awards for "scholarship, faithfulness and conduct." Individual, age-appropriate books went to: Megan Chaisson, kindergarten; Abigail Wheeler, Grade 1; George Wheeler, Grade 2; Alan Theriault, Grade 3; Courtney Currier, Grade 4; Hunter Gray, Grade 5; Gabrielle Conrad, Grade 6; Adam Mahar, Grade 7; Elek Pew, Grade 8; Amy Jane Mahar, Grade 9; Whitney Mills, Grade 10; Brianna Bailey, Grade 11, and Kayla Morin, Grade 12.

In addition to receiving awards, seniors introduced themselves and said a few words about their post-graduation plans. This was followed by roll call and a tribute to the late Violet Swain who, although not an Andover Alumna, faithfully served the association as vice-president for five years.

From The Lewin Center

Who are we? The "we" of The Lewin Center are eight Board members; one staff person, Program Director Nancy Davis; 14 volunteer members of

The Lewin Center Bethel committee; and our newest team member, House Manager Jay Hanscom. We are not NTL, though seven Lewin Center Board members are also NTL members. While NTL still owns the Gehring House, The Lewin Center leases and manages the facility, offering meeting space to a variety of local organizations and a beautiful setting for social events, such as the family graduation party last weekend.

We welcome folks to come see us and take a tour of the house. You may not catch us there at all times, so feel free to call ahead and make an appointment; Nancy's cell phone number is 256-6956.

And if you're a gardener, we are still inviting volunteers in our extensive gardens. Ruth Barrett, Bonnie Pooley and Walter Brough have spent countless hours tending the plants, and there's lots more to do. You may call Ruth at 824-0711 to offer your help.

This is the first of several items to present the people of The Lewin Center: Our new house manager has just moved in. Jay Hanscom grew up in Newry, and he is studying to become a teacher, working in several teaching capacities at Telstar. He will be a welcome addition to our Lewin Center team, and we are happy to have him in the Gehring House!

From White Mountain National Forest

Warm weather makes outdoor activities enticing. If you're planning a trip to the White Mountain National Forest in the near future, take a few minutes to call one of the forest's ranger stations to obtain updated road, trail, and campground conditions: Androscoggin Ranger District:

(603) 466-2713; Saco Ranger District: (603) 447-2166; Pemigewasset Ranger District: (603) 745-3816.

According to Forest Service staff, visitors can find typical spring conditions when they arrive. Some areas of the high country still have snow so backcountry hikers should be prepared for a variety of conditions. Some stream crossings are high and footing may be slick.

Trails are slowly being cleaned for the summer season. Waterbars may need to be repaired and blowdowns may impede your way. Take your time, be sure your footing is secure, and please report any major blowdowns or trail damage to the nearest district office.

Campgrounds are open for the summer. Both first-come/first-served and reservable sites are available. More information is available on the White Mountain National Forest website. Remember, these campgrounds are in forested environments and you may experience a visit from a bear if you have unprotected food in your site. Another concern this year is the potential for campers to introduce invasive insects to the area by bringing firewood from home. Campers should purchase their firewood locally.

Because of recent rains, some roads are just being opened to traffic. Forest roads that are open for vehicular traffic are closely monitored as the season approaches. Any late opening is to reduce the potential for erosion.

Forest Supervisor Tom Wagner stressed the need for visitors to be prepared and alert to their surroundings. "We're all ready to get out and enjoy the National Forest. It may have been a while since you were active and you need to make sure your equipment and muscles are ready to go."

THE HUNT IS ON!

THE MOLLYOCKETT TREASURE HUNT

hosted by the Mahoosuc Arts Council and The Bethel Citizen

Mollyockett was a Pequawket Indian who lived among and befriended the early settlers of Western Maine. Second only to her medical reputation as the great "Indian doctress," was Mollyockett's fame as a storyteller. She was a welcomed guest at many homes, and some of her tales were passed down through the generations.

Most famous are the "treasure stories" - the burying of Indian gold in West Paris beneath a trap hung in trees, and similar tales involving White Cap in Andover and Hemlock Island in East Bethel.

The Mollyockett Treasure Hunt will commemorate those tales by offering a $500 cash prize to the person(s) who finds the hidden treasure, in this case a medallion. The object of the hunt is to decipher a series of clues and locate the medallion hidden on public land somewhere within a 30 minute drive of Bethel. The finder of the medallion may claim the cash prize on Mollyockett Day.

Clues, each different and more revealing, will be published once a week for six weeks in The Bethel Citizen or until the medallion is found. This year, Mollyockett Day takes place on July 21. If the medallion is not found by midnight, Friday, July 20, the hunt will be terminated.

Treasure Hunt Rules

Anyone is eligible to join the thrilling hunt for $500 except past winners, employees and immediate family members of C's Publishing, board members and immediate family members of the Mahoosuc Arts Council as well as all contest sponsors and partners. To claim the prize money, you must be 18 years or older.

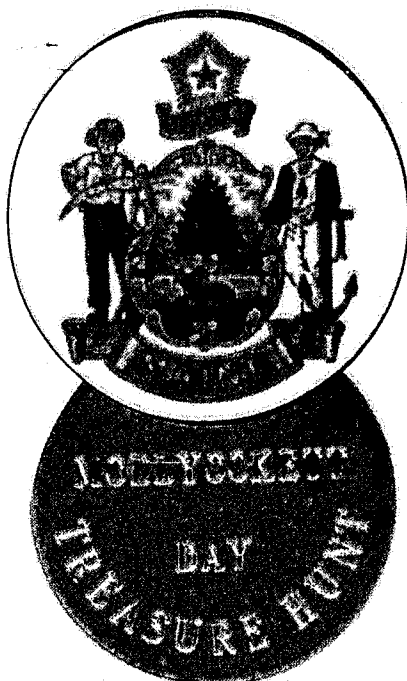

The finder of the Mollyockett Treasure Hunt medallion must immediately return the medallion to Amy Lehman, executive director of the Mahoosuc Arts Council. The finder will receive the cash prize of $500 on Mollyockett Day, July 21. Clues for the Mollyockett Treasure Hunt will be hidden weekly in the Bethel Citizen beginning Thursday, June 14, unless the medallion is found prior to publish date.

If the medallion is not found by midnight July 21st, the Mahoosuc Arts Council reserves the right to terminate the hunt. The medallion is made of aluminum and is approximately two inches in diameter. It will be hidden only on public land, somewhere within a 30 minute drive of Bethel.

The Mahoosuc Arts Council reserves the right to discontinue the hunt at any time if public property is destroyed.

The medallion is generally hidden in or attached to something else. The medallion is not buried below ground - as the rules state, searchers do not need to destroy property to find it, this includes digging up the ground. Searchers also do not need to risk personal injury to find the medallion. All contestants agree that the Bethel Citizen and the Mahoosuc Arts Council will have no liability whatsoever and will be held harmless of any injuries, losses or damages of any kind resulting in whole or in part, directly or indirectly from acceptance, possession, misuse or use of the prize or participation in this contest.

The winner grants permission for the Bethel Citizen and the Mahoosuc Arts Council to use his or her name, photograph, voice and/or likeness for advertising and/or publicity.

From Bethel Historical Society's Regional History Center

An exhibit highlighting the history of the Androscoggin River from its source near Errol, N.H., to the point where it joins the Kennebec in Merrymeeting Bay below Brunswick opened in the Bethel Historical Society's O'Neil Robinson House on Saturday, June 2.

Several months in the making, the exhibit, prepared by Society Curator of Collections Randall H. Bennett and ably assisted by Curatorial Assistant Danna Nickerson, brings together an impressive number of historical photographs, woodcuts, and maps as well as landscape paintings, prints and commemorative china to provide the visitor with a view of the river's history, which is further explained by the accompanying interpretive text. One of the largest rivers in northern New England, the Androscoggin drains an area of over 3,400 square miles on a course that includes impressive rapids and waterfalls on its way to the sea. Due to the availability of abundant water power, numerous industries sprouted up along the river's banks during the 19th and 20th centuries, so that by the 1940s, the Androscoggin had become one of the most polluted rivers in the nation. However, industrial and municipal waste discharge regulations set by the 1948 Water Pollution Control act and its subsequent amendments allowed the river to make a comeback, so that in some sections (notably above Jay, Maine), it is becoming a significant recreational resource for communities along its banks.

Through the skillful use of historical and visual resources, Bennett and Nickerson, present a vivid picture of the Androscoggin's past from its role as a transportation route for Native Americans to a means of shipping logs to lumber and paper mills to a source of nutrients for agricultural production and water power for industry, and finally as a popular destination for boaters, fishermen, artists, photographers and nature enthusiasts.

The exhibit is open throughout the year from 10 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. every Tuesday through Friday. During July and August, it will also be open 1 to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday until Labor Day.

Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show

Sponsored by the Bethel Historical Society, the 28th annual Faye Taylor Memorial Art Show was held on May 26 at the Dr. Moses Mason House. As usual, the show highlighted a historical theme; in 2007, that theme was "Old Days on the Androscoggin" for students in SAD44 (Grades 1-6) to consider in entering the competition for cash awards in three divisions. Suggestions for the show included river scenes with water-powered mills, ferries, steamboats, log drives, sluices, and covered bridges. In order to be eligible, each of the nearly one hundred entries related in some way to this theme. Three prizes that included cash, a certificate of commendation and ribbon were given in each of the three divisions. Judges included Don Bennett, June Abbott and Danna Nickerson. Winners were, Division 1 (Grades 1 and 2): first, Regan Kauf, Grade 2, Crescent Park; second, Kaitlyn Brown, Grade 2, Woodstock Elementary; third, Mykiah Bennett, Grade 1, Woodstock Elementary. Division II (Grades 3 and 4): first, Kate Merrill, Grade 4, Andover Elementary; second, Andrew Mills, Grade 4, Crescent Park; third, Jillian Delallo, Grade 3, Crescent Park. Division III (Grades 5 and 6): first, Hunter Gray, Grade 3, Andover Elementary; second, Jenny Wakefield, Grade 5, Woodstock Elementary; third, Echo Pelc, Grade 5, Andover Elementary. This contest is among several programs offered to students in the region by the society and honors the memory of Faye Sanborn Taylor (1908-1972), a local artist, who was especially interested in encouraging the creative talents of young people. A charter member of the society in 1966, she also served as treasurer of the organization until her death in 1972.

St. Never's Day Sale

The Bethel Historical Society's annual St. Never's Day sale, held on May 26 under the tent on Stan Howe's lawn at the corner of Broad and Mason streets, was a great success. Once more loads of visitors found "treasures" at bargain prices that they could never resist, thus the name St. Never's Day. Among those who helped with the sale are Jay Bochetti, Annie Hastings, Grace McKivergan, Pat McCartney, Joe Arizzi, Mary Valentine, Al Cressy and Paula Howard. Much gratitude is expressed to all who helped with the sale and especially those who made donations of goods to make it such a success.

From Oxford County Republicans

State Republican Chairman Mark Ellis will be the featured speaker at the June 12 monthly meeting of the Oxford County Republican Committee at the Andover First Congregational Church on Elm Street by the town common, just off Route 5. The social hour will begin at 5:30 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 p.m. followed by the chair's presentation and a brief business meeting.

One of the priorities of the State Committee is placing more emphasis on party organization, particularly at the town committee level, which can be crucial in close election contests. 2008 will be a presidential election year and in Maine U.S. Senator Susan Collins will be seeking re-election, so it will be essential that the Maine Republican Party be in top condition to return Sen. Collins to the U.S. Senate, pick up the open seat in the First Congressional District, and elect a Republican Legislature.

All area Republicans are cordially urged to attend this meeting to become more familiar with the details of keeping town committees active and vital.

At the May monthly meeting in Waterford, County Commissioners Dave Duguay and Steve Merrill reported on all the exciting projects going on the county level. They also cited statistics that show Oxford County is among the most efficiently operated county governments in the state, providing high-level services at the lowest possible cost to the taxpayers. They invited anyone interested to attend County Commission meetings and to serve on its various committees.

The next monthly meeting will be the annual picnic on July 10, which will be held on State Committeeman Stan Howe's lawn in Bethel.

From Roxbury ATV Riders

Meeting held June 1, at President Mike Worthley's home in Roxbury at 7 p.m. Sixteen members were in attendance.

Secretary's report was not read, as all information is in the newsletter.

Treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Trails opened May 19 and the Park and Ride was full. Thanks to Matt, Mike D., and Klaus for doing a great job filling water bars and rock raking on the Turk Trail. It held up really well for the Poker Run. Great job!

We would like to thank everyone who worked on trails last year and the ones who are helping out this year. Thanks to all those who helped with roadside cleanup. We collected over 70 bags of trash just in the Roxbury area. Thank you also to everyone that keeps dropping off their bottles. This is certainly adding up for our equipment fund.

The bridge has been removed from Sawyer Notch. The beams will be used for a new bridge across Horseshoe Brook.

The Lee Hodgkins Memorial Weekend Poker Run was another great success. We had over 150 registrants on Saturday the 26th. Winner of the 50/50 was Craig Silva from Kittery and Andover. He won $2,620. Winners of the Poker Run were Carissa Bryant, Chris Denlinger and Donna Webber. Congratulations to the winners. Everyone seemed to have a great time especially those that ran the mud trail.

Gibbie Hodgkins wanted to let us know that he and all of Kyle's family and relatives wanted to extend a big thank you for the poker run fundraiser to benefit Kyle.

Next Poker Run will be Labor Day Weekend. This will be the Donald E. Ryerson Memorial Poker Run.

There will be a meeting on Friday, June 8 at Black Mountain at 6 p.m. with several ATV clubs regarding the Christmas in July Toy Run. Wilton did this last year and had over 400 bikes riding in their run.

Xmas in July ATV Toy Run

Our club along with River Valley, Peru, and the Black Mountain Ski Area will be sponsoring on Saturday, July 14, Xmas in July ATV Toy Run. The riders' requirement will be to bring an unwrapped toy in a plastic bag or a monetary donation. Your ride will start from Grimaldi Field in Andover to the Black Mountain Ski Resort. You will take your toy on the ride and deliver it to the ski resort, where folks from Mexico/Rumford, Peru and Bethel, will be more than happy to relieve you of your parcels or funds. All these toys and or monies will benefit various Xmas for Children and Families in the above areas. Let's show our support and get out there for this ride. It's a great family event. Black Mountain will be selling food, their will be ATV vendors participating, a poker run will also be going on at the same time that you leave Andover and their will also be 50/50 raffles going on. At 7:30 a.m. the Slippery Sliders and the Sno Valley Snogoers snowmobile clubs will be selling coffee and homemade donuts at their warming shack in Andover. Registration will be from 8 to 10 a.m. and the Blessing of the Bikes and ride will begin at 10:15 a.m. So bring your family, bring your money, bring your toys and bring your appetite for a fun time.

Our club is looking for a few volunteers to help us prior to this ride. We need three people to register people for the poker run and a couple of people to sell 50/50 tickets prior to the ride. We would also like to have some Trail Samaritans that will be located or will be riding with various groups. You will have walkie-talkies and this is just in case there are breakdowns on the trails we can get some assistance to you.

Please, please call Wanda or Mike at 545-2715 to donate a couple hours of your time that morning. This won't prevent you from being able to go on the ride.

We also received a letter from Wal-Mart Distribution Center in Raymond, N.H., that they will be hosting their first annual ATV Ride (to benefit The Children's Miracle Network) on Oct. 13, 2007 at the 5,500-acre Scenic State Park at Pawtuckaway Lake. www.nharks.state.nh.us.

This fully mapped trail system takes riders through heavily wooded areas, mountains, ponds, bridges, waterfalls and the Pawtuckaway Fire Tower. The main trail will be approximately 15 miles but other sub-trails add up to an additional 7-8 miles of exploration. All riders can be accommodated. The foliage season should be at its peak for this ride. The registration will be $15 per rider. We have been told for this ride you will not have to register your ATV in New Hampshire for this event.

So if you are interested in this and going as a group you contact Mike or Wanda at Roxbury ATV Riders: mworthley@roadrunner.com or we believe you can get further information on this from Clinton Robinson. His e-mail is: cccrobin@wal-mart.com.

Don't forget: Xmas in July ATV Toy Run Saturday, July 14, at 7:30 a.m. meeting at Grimaldi Field in Andover. Plenty of parking available.

We have so many members in the club, that for the Christmas in July we would really like to see some volunteers help us with this.

We don't have a lot to do, because other clubs are getting involved. This event is coming up fast, so hopefully you can all plan on coming. Thank you.

From U.M. Cooperative Extension

If you or someone in your family has diabetes, are you confused about what to eat and what not to eat? Do the phrases "diabetic diet," low sugar, low fat, or low sodium mean no taste to you?

For a person with diabetes, selecting and preparing foods can be a real challenge. People with diabetes will have a chance to learn how to prepare good-tasting, healthy foods at a workshop offered by the University of Maine Cooperative Extension.

Diabetes, Food and You! is a workshop on providing meals for the person with or at risk for type 2 diabetes. The workshop will include: selecting foods for the person with diabetes; understanding carbohydrates, preparing good-tasting, healthy foods, and understanding portions. Participants will also have an opportunity to sample healthy foods for a light lunch.

The workshop will be held on Friday, June 15, from 9:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Extension Office on Olson Road in South Paris. Wendy Legg Pollock, Extension educator, will lead the workshop. The cost is $10 per person, with an additional $6 for another person from the same family. Scholarships are available. Registration and fee are due by June 11. Space is limited. Call the Extension Office at 743-6329 or (800) 287-1482 for more information.

From Maine Educational Opportunity Center

MEOC (Maine Educational

Opportunity Center) is a federally funded program that helps qualified adults make the transition toward a college education. This program, which is housed at the University of Maine, provides assistance for qualified adults living in Maine and helps them go to whichever college or university they choose.

All MEOC services are free. Services provided are: 1) GED/SAT preparation, 2) college planning, 3) referrals/advocacy, 4) career counseling, 5) financial aid counseling, 6) college admissions process.

Our Work in Action: MEOC successfully placed 644 adults across the state in different colleges, and helped 150 adults receive their adult diploma or GED last year.

How to Participate: The starting point for all MEOC participants is "The Essentials of College Planning," a free interactive workshop that outlines the four steps in the college process: admissions, financial aid, career planning, and study skills. The workshop lasts approximately two to three hours. Pre-registration is required.

For more information or to register, call (800) 281-3703, Essentials of College Planning Workshops: June 4 at 10 a.m. in the South Paris Career Center, 232 Main Street, South Paris.

REAL ESTATE AND YOU

IS THERE REALLY ANOTHER BUYER?

You have found the perfect house and are thinking about making an offer. Even though you trust your Realtor, you are feeling some pressure just when you feel that you need time to consider the matter. The agent tells you that another party is thinking about making an offer, so you shouldn't delay if you really want the house. What should you do? Trust your agent!

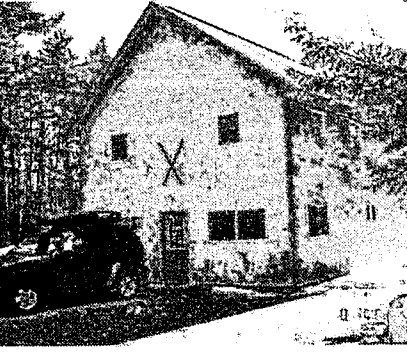

It is natural to feel some pressure from even the most easy-going Realtor—and some uncertainty about whether to make an offer. If you really like a house, there is always the possibility that someone else will share your enthusiasm for it. Sometimes you can "sleep on it" and it won't matter. Whether the market is lively or sluggish, it is a good idea to assume that another offer is likely to come in. If your heart is set on the property, move as quickly as possible to minimize the possibility of another buyer materializing.

For professional advice on all aspects of buying or selling real estate, contact Cindy Hiebert at Mahoosuc Realty, 207-824-2771

BEFORE BUYING A HOME!
 Where do you start when you are ready to buy a home? Before you begin looking for a home, you have to make some decisions. You need to decide what is important to you when purchasing your home. Before starting out on your home search it is a good idea to sit down and develop a list of what is important and what you would like in your new home. Your list could include schools, neighborhood, amenities, number of bedrooms, number of baths, a basement, a separate dining room, 2-story family room or foyer, one level ranch plan, master bedroom on the main level, special financing, seller willing to cover closing costs and the list goes on and on.
 An experienced buyer real estate agent can help you through the process. There is no such thing as a perfect house, therefore once you have developed your list you should begin to prioritize it. You can prioritize into, "must have", "should have" and "would be nice to have". By having a clear understanding what you want in your new home, and the priority of those items, you will be in a much better position to decide whether you want to put an offer on a house you see and like. It is also a good idea to consider whether you want to purchase a new or pre-owned home.

ROSEMARY G. KELLEY

Rosemary Geldart Kelley of Auburn died at St. Marguerite d'Youville Pavilion on April 12, 2007.

Born in New Brunswick, Canada on Aug. 27, 1932, Rosemary was adopted and raised in Hiram by her grandparents, Essie and John F. Kelley Sr.

A cerebral palsy victim at birth, Rosemary overcame many added physical challenges in her lifetime including cancer and diabetes and did so with grace and courage. In an age when little appreciation was given to the difficulties of living with physical handicaps, she attended and graduated from Gould Academy in Bethel, earned a BA degree from Bates College in Lewiston, and a MA degree from Simmons College in Boston, Mass. She was very proud of these achievements.

Rosemary worked as an administrative assistant at Harvard University and later as a medical librarian at the University Of New England College Of Osteopathic Medicine. She spent her later years as a caregiver for Bessie Ochtil and her aunt Lena Warren.

Rosemary was predeceased by her grandparents; her sister Vivian Kley; and a very special cousin, Geraldine Kimball. Survivors include her aunt Evelyn Kelley of Bridgton; cousins Jack Kelley of Winthrop, and Beverly Dudley of Standish; a niece and a nephew.

Rosemary was especially appreciative of the care given by her friend Carol Layton and the many dedicated healthcare professionals at d'Youville Pavilion.

A memorial service was held on June 6, at the York Funeral Chapel in Cornish.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to a scholarship fund in Rosemary's name at: Gould Academy, P.O. Box 860, Bethel, ME 04217-0860.
